

Cyberbullying Unplugged

Cyberbullying is the use of Internet technologies to tease, humiliate, and harass someone. It might be mean text messages sent at all hours of the day, or degrading comments about someone posted to a website. Cyberbullying can have devastating effects on children, so learn about the issue and how to help your child deal with it.

Spot It A child who is being cyberbullied may

- ▶ Avoid using computers, cell phones, and other technological devices
- ▶ Appear stressed when receiving an e-mail, instant message, or text
- ▶ Withdraw from family and friends
- ▶ Act reluctant to attend school and social events
- ▶ Avoid conversations about computer use
- ▶ Exhibit signs of low self-esteem including depression and/or fear
- ▶ Have declining grades
- ▶ Stop eating or sleeping
- ▶ In serious cases, consider suicide

Deal With It If your child is being cyberbullied, teach them to

- ▶ Not respond
- ▶ Save the evidence
- ▶ Report it to the website, and/or your Internet service provider

Also, you should

- ▶ Meet with school administrators to discuss a plan of action and their bullying/cyberbullying policy
- ▶ Talk about the situation with the bully's parent or guardian

Talk About It Ask your child

- ▶ Has anyone ever been mean to you online? How did you respond?
- ▶ Have you ever been mean to anyone online? Why?
- ▶ Is it OK to forward a text message making fun of someone? Why or why not?
- ▶ Do you know your school's policy on bullying?
- ▶ Which teacher would you talk to if you were being bullied?
