

1. Intimation

- (A) With disdain, dislike, or contempt
- (B) Unable or unwilling to believe; skeptically
- (C) Motivated or persuaded to do something
- (D) A subtle or indirect hint

2. Inclined

- (A) A subtle or indirect hint
- (B) Unwilling or unable to believe; skeptically
- (C) Motivated or persuaded to do something
- (D) Magnificent or grand in appearance

3. Levity

- (A) Behavior intended to be amusing; flippancy
- (B) Bare and uninhabited; isolated
- (C) Magnificent or grand in appearance
- (D) To be a part of secret or private knowledge

4. Contemptuously

- (A) To be a part of secret or private knowledge
- (B) Bare and uninhabited
- (C) With disdain, dislike, or contempt
- (D) Without interest

5. Privy

- (A) With disdain, dislike, or contempt
- (B) To be a part of secret or private knowledge
- (C) Unable to be penetrated; unable to get through
- (D) Bar and uninhabited

6. Incredulously

- (A) Unable to be penetrated; unable to get through
- (B) A subtle or indirect hint
- (C) Unable or unwilling to believe; skeptically

D Bare and uninhabited

7. Indeterminate

A A subtle or indirect hint

B Motivated or persuaded to do something

C Unable to be penetrated; unable to get through

D Not known exactly; vague

8. Sumptuous

A Magnificent or grand in appearance

B A subtle or indirect hint

C Not known exactly; vague

D Without interest

9. Apathetically

A Bare and uninhabited

B Unwilling or unable to believe; skeptically

C Magnificent or grand in appearance

D Without interest

10. Impenetrable

A Behavior intended to be amusing; flippancy

B Unable to be penetrated; unable to get through

C With disdain, dislike, or contempt

D Motivated or persuaded to do something

11. Incessant

A A subtle or indirect hint

B Without interest

C Without an end; ongoing

D Not known exactly; vague

12. Desolate

A Magnificent or grand in appearance

B Without an end; ongoing

C Unable to be penetrated; unable to get through

D Bare and uninhabited; isolated