

November 12th, 2018

Reading Fair Homework

Dear Parents,

Due to our upcoming Reading Fair, the next several weeks' homework will include your child's Reading Fair project. So that you can work at your own pace, we will be sending all of the homework at one time with due dates listed. The homework is a rough draft of the 8 elements that will be required on your child's storyboard. Please have your child write each week's homework on the Reading Fair Homework sheet that is found in your child's Take Home Folder. The Reading Fair Homework sheet will stay inside the Take Home Folder so that you can refer to it when working on the final storyboard. We appreciate all your hard work in making our Reading Fair a success!

2018-2109 Hope Sullivan Reading Fair

Due by Friday, November 30th

Title (What is the name of the book?)
Author (Who wrote the book?)
Publisher and Publication Date

Due by Friday, December 7th

Setting (When and where did the story happen?)
Characters (Who are the main characters in the story?)
Plot Summary (Retell the story in your own words – writing and/or drawing)

Due by Friday, December 14th

Conflict (What was the problem?)
Solution (How it was the problem solved?)

Due by Monday, January 7th

Completed Project turned in at school on this date

 Students will be responsible for presenting their projects. The presentation and projects will be graded and judged. Projects chosen from the preliminary round of judging will be entered into the school's Reading Fair on Friday, January 11th, 2019.*