

WK 2 Zoom Quiz L.4.5a

Directions: Read the question. Fill in the bubble next to the corresponding question number on your answer sheet.

Sample Question	Sample Answer Sheet
Sample Item Not Available	1. <input type="radio"/> A <input type="radio"/> B <input type="radio"/> C <input type="radio"/> D 2. <input type="radio"/> A <input type="radio"/> B <input type="radio"/> C <input type="radio"/> D 3. <input type="radio"/> A <input type="radio"/> B <input type="radio"/> C <input type="radio"/> D 4. <input type="radio"/> A <input type="radio"/> B <input type="radio"/> C <input type="radio"/> D 5. <input type="radio"/> A <input type="radio"/> B <input type="radio"/> C <input type="radio"/> D

1

Read the sentence in the box.

I can't find anything in my sister's room because she is a pack rat.

What does the metaphor in the sentence help the reader understand about the writer's sister?

- A The writer's sister is tricky.
 - B The writer's sister moves very quietly.
 - C The writer's sister keeps many things.
 - D The writer's sister is sneaky.
-

2

Read the lines from a poem.

The cricket hopped into the grass
Quick as lightning,
He crossed the field

What does quick as lightning mean in the lines from the poem?

- A The cricket went across the field very fast.
- B The cricket went across the field in a storm.
- C The cricket hopped very high across the field.
- D The cricket was up and down in the grass.

3

Read the sentence.

The night sky was like moist black velvet.

What is the meaning of the simile used in the sentence?

- A The sky was soft and fluffy.
- B The sky was made of fabric.
- C The sky was bright.
- D The sky was a very dark black.

4

Read the sentence.

The girl moved towards the cookie jar like a burglar in the night.

What is the meaning of the simile used in the sentence?

- A The girl hurried toward the jar.
- B The girl was moving very slowly.
- C The girl was trying to be sneaky.
- D The girl moved loudly toward the jar.

5

Read the sentence.

The raindrops were daggers falling from the sky, as we ran to the house.

What is the meaning of the metaphor in this sentence?

- A Sharp objects were falling from the sky.
- B The falling raindrops felt painful.
- C The rain clouds were in the shape of daggers.
- D The house was very far away.

6

Read the sentence.

The wind was as loud as a train whistle as it roared during the night.

Which correctly evaluates the use of a simile in this sentence?

- A The simile is used to point out the sound of the wind.
- B The simile is used to show the power of a train.
- C The simile is used to explain how wind is formed.
- D The simile is used to create a sense of humor.

7

Read the sentence.

Her hair is a rainbow of color.

What does the metaphor in this sentence help the reader understand about the woman's hair?

- A Her hair is very wet.
- B Her hair is many different colors.
- C Her hair is long.
- D Her hair is wild.

8

Read the sentences.

(1) Ashley has had an interesting week. (2) First, she got a perfect score on her math test. (3) Then, she got in trouble for not completing her chores. (4) Life is certainly like a roller coaster sometimes.

Why is sentence 4 an effective use of figurative language?

- A The simile shows the reader that Ashley needs to go on vacation.
 - B The simile shows that Ashley's week had its ups and downs.
 - C The simile shows that Ashley was scared this week.
 - D The simile shows that Ashley needs to grow up.
-

9

Read the sentence.

Her laughter is a sweet song to his ears.

What does the metaphor in this sentence help the reader understand about her laughter?

- A Singing makes her laugh.
- B Her laughter is like a piano's sound.
- C Her laughter is nice to hear.
- D Her laughter makes him sing.

10 Read the sentence.

The doorbell cries with a loud shriek each time it is rung.

What does the metaphor in this sentence help the reader understand about the doorbell?

- A The doorbell is so loud it makes people cry.
- B The doorbell is loud like the sound of crying.
- C The baby's crying sounds like a doorbell.
- D The baby cried when the doorbell rang.

11 Read the sentence.

The room is a cage with no space to move around.

What does the metaphor in this sentence help the reader understand about the room?

- A The room is small like a cage.
- B The room is locked like a cage.
- C The room holds animals like a cage.
- D The room smells like a cage.

12 Joey wants to write a simile to describe a very slow runner. What animal will he use in his simile?

- A snake
- B snail
- C fox
- D cat