

March 25, 2020

TO: Parents and Family of Moorhead Elementary

This packet of work will help your child think about honor, courage, family and friends. The selections encourage your child to be brave, to be helpful to a friend, to overcome obstacles, to share their gifts and to explore the backyard.

Enjoy reading and learning with your child. Complete the activities to help with your child's comprehension and vocabulary skills.

Please remember that we greatly appreciate your child and hope you will find these articles engaging and fun to read.