

March 25, 2020

TO: Parents and Family of Moorhead Elementary

This packet of work will help your child think about courage and overcoming obstacles. They will also read about getting along with others and choosing happiness.

Enjoy reading and learning with your child. Complete the activities to help with your child's comprehension and vocabulary skills.

Please remember that we greatly appreciate your child and hope you will find these articles engaging and fun to read.