

The Natives and the English: U.S. History Crash Course #3

Available at <https://youtu.be/TTYOQ05oDOI> or just youtube/google "Crash Course US History 3"

1. When the first English settlers came to the Chesapeake area (now Virginia) in 1607, the land was already inhabited by Indian tribes unified under the leadership of Chief Wahunsenacawh, whom the English called _____.

a. What was an element of the original mutually-beneficial relationship between the English and the Indians?

b. What were some elements that started to sour the relationship?

c. In 1622, Chief Opechancanough led a _____ against the English, which ultimately failed. After another failed uprising in 1644, the 2,000 remaining Native Americans were forced to sign a treaty that consigned them into _____ in the West.

d. In general, settlers thought Native Americans could be replaced because they weren't "_____."

2. In 1675, Native Americans launched their biggest attack on New England colonists in what would come to be known as _____. King Philip was actually named _____.

a. What was the fate of King Philip?

b. What is one other example of the brutality of the war?

3. What was the most interesting thing you learned about this time in pre-American history?