

TRI-M MUSIC HONOR SOCIETY

*A program of NAFME
National Association for Music Education*

The Tri-M® Music Honor Society is an international program dedicated to the recognition of exceptional music students in grades 6-12 that meet the music, academic, leadership, and character criteria asked of every Tri-M member. Tri-M is a program of NAFME: National Association for Music Education, which is the largest arts education association in the world.

Current members of the Bartlett Yancey High School Band or Chorus in grades 9-12 are eligible to apply for induction into the Tri-M Music Honor Society. Applicants must have completed at least one semester with a BYHS music ensemble to be considered. Minimum criteria for acceptance include an A (4.00) grade average in BYHS music classes, and a B (3.00 weighted) or better overall grade average. Participation in Music, Character, and Leadership and Service (both at school and in the community) will also be considered. Students accepted to the Tri-M Music Honor Society are required to remain enrolled in a BYHS music ensemble, as well as participate chapter meetings, performances, and service projects.

Students that are interested in becoming members must return the completed application and recommendations no later than March 3, 2017.
