1. John Steinbeck was born in what city?
2. Another name for Local Color is
3. Characters in realistic literature, should be
4. Typography refers to a region’s
5. Those who look at the past with a sense of admiration or long can be said to be
6. Narrators in regionalistic literature are often
7. Steinbeck went to this university but did not graduate.
8. Steinbeck won the following two awards for literature
9. “Ad astra per alia porci” means
10. Steinbeck was an expert in which academic discipline?
11. Steinbeck believed that writers must believe in the ______________ of man.
12. How did John Steinbeck die?
13. In “The Leader of the People,” Jody’s grandfather
14. Why was Carl Tiflin NOT excited about his father’s visit?
15. Jody’s grandfather’s life
16. Jody’s grandfather feels
17. As opposed to his grandfather’s heroic battle, Jody’s most aggressive battle is
18. Jody’s grandfather can be said to be
19. A character who changes over the course of a story is a
20. A character who stays the same over the course of a story is a
21. A character who contrasts significantly to another character is called that character’s
22. Lennie can be said to be a
23. George can be said to be a
24. Slim and Carlson can be said to be
25. Candy’s dog is a symbol for
26. This character is missing a hand:
27. This is the most respected character on the ranch:
28. The short, pugnacious character who hates large men is
29. The title Of Mice and Men suggests
30. Why does Lennie want to sleep in the barn?
31. Why does Crooks sleep in the barn?
32. Before marrying Curley, his wife
33. Curley’s wife admits to Lennie that
34. Why does George stop playing tricks on Lennie?
35. Why does Carlson kill Candy’s dog?
36. Why does Candy allow his dog to be shot?
37. Rabbits are a symbol for
38. Why is Candy willing to offer an exorbitant amount of money to purchase a farm with George and Lennie?
39. Why does George shoot Lennie?
40. Hands are a symbol for
41. Why does George continue telling Lennie the story about rabbits?
42. Why does Curley wear one glove?
43. Before killing Lennie, George
44. Why does the novella end at the same location it began?
45. Will George ever achieve his goal of owning a ranch?

ESSAY: 15 POINTS

Be able to discuss the reasons George kills Lennie, the mood of the characters when he does so, and the possible outcomes if George were to not to do so.