2016 North Carolina AP Payment Policy

1. No funding for AP test/registration fees should be collected from students/families for this year's exams. The intent of the Broaden Access and Successful Participation in Advanced Courses legislation was to ensure that students/families will have access to these exams without the burden of test fees.
2. Students must be enrolled in a current year Advanced Placement course in order for North Carolina to pay for the exam.
3. Homeschool students must pay the full cost of any or all Advanced Placement exams. North Carolina will not fund these exams.
4. Any student who requests a Late Exam must pay the full cost of the exam plus the Late Testing Fees. North Carolina will not fund these exams.
5. Any student who requests an Advanced Placement Exam and then fails to sit for the exam for any reason will be charged a $15.00 Unused Test Fee. North Carolina will not fund the refund fee to The College Board.
6. Students on Free or Reduced Lunch are requested to identify themselves upon registration.

Registration

I request that the following Advanced Placement Exams be ordered on my/my student's behalf and it is my student's intent to sit for the exam(s).
