(Music)

How does this work? Instead of selling something, just ask for donations. Go to all the people you would normally ask to buy something & just ask for donations instead.

When you ask somebody for a donation, be sure to let them know that this is a fundraiser for Southeastern Randolph Middle school.

If you're getting the donation in person, have the person sign the fundraiser pledge sheet. This will help you keep track of all of your pledges. When you turn in the money at the school, you should bring in the money with the pledge sheet. If you decide you want to raise more money, to make your total even higher, just ask for a second pledge sheet & you can easily get one to get more donations.

When is it? Feb 9th

What time? Right after school!

And how can parents help? And how can you get pledges right away?

Call, text, skype, email, share on social media.

Now, one of the questions we always get is: how much money do I need to raise to do all these different activities? Well, we're gonna put all the incentives at the end of this commercial- and you can pause it to read through everything- but the big ones are:

- Getting into the party, which is just $25. $25 in pledges gets you into the glow & laser light show party.
- If you want to play glow in the dark dodgeball, you only have to raise $25 more, so for a total of $50 in pledges you get to come play glow in the dark dodgeball.
- And for $75 you get to play dodgeball and come to the foam party in the spring.

Now, some of your classmates are gonna tell you a little bit more about the half court shot, and the Slimetime. Take it away guys!

So what happens when you get chosen and you make that half court shot? If you have $50 in pledges, you will win a thousand dollars. If you have $75 in pledges, you will win TWO thousand dollars! But wait, what happens if I have $150 in pledges? Then you'll win, not one, not two, but . . .

(suspenseful music)

One hundred billion dollars!

Ha, ha, that amount of money doesn't even exist! Hahahahaha, hahahahahaha. I could say, I want a kajillion bajillion dollars, hahahahaha!!!

Okay, okay, you won't win one hundred billion dollars, but if you make that half court shot and you've raised $150, tell them what they will win. . .

Then you'll win. . . not one, not two, but THREE thousand dollars!!

It's time to strike fear in the hearts of the Slimetime targets at SERMS.

Let them know: you WILL get slimed!!

Will you help us by becoming a Slime Warrior?

Join our elite Slimetime Team by turning in pledges of $50, $75, or $150.

Sure, you could raise $50 and get one Slimetime pass, but to be a Slime Warrior & really make an impact, you need at least 3 slime passes.

To get 3 Slimetime passes, you'll need to raise $75 in pledges.

Now, to truly make the Slime Victims QUAKE!!

you'll need to be armed with 5 Slimetime passes.

That kind of Slimetime power only comes with $150 in pledges.

And THAT'S the only way we can slime Principal Powers!!

(Whoa!)

She says we can't do it,

but we'll show her that our Slimetime Team CAN!!!

Wow, you guys did a great job telling everybody how this event works, & we are excited to see you on Feb 9th.

Now, on the screen are the incentives- all the incentives. If you want to pause it and look through everything, this is the time to do that. And we're going to close this commercial with some more highlights of what we're bringing to your school on Feb 9th. It's truly going to be the biggest party ever at Southeastern Randolph Middle School. See you then!

(Music)

Did you have fun? Yeah. Yeah. Yaaayyyyy! Whoooo!

Did you have fun? Yeeessss!

Thanks for coming.

Thank you for everything. Yaayyyyy!!

(Music. Squeals of excitement. . .)
