vacation and I am sure you are ready to give your child back to us so your life can get back to normal. We are just as excited to get our students back and to get back into the swing of things again.

Starting on Monday , Kindergarten through 3rd grade students will be taking their middle of the year reading assessments. This process should take about a week and a half. Once the assessments are finished, we will report back to parents to let you know how much your child has grown since September.

On Jan. 17th, we will have our second Title I Parent Night, Monopoly Night, starting at 5:30. Everyone is invited to come and have some fun with math. We will have multiple stations for you and your children to go to and do an activity. We hope you will be able to attend. More information will be coming in the near future.

Thank you and I hope you have a happy and safe New Year.
