1. We hope you have been able to have your child caught reading. We will continue to try for the next 2 weeks. If you have not turned in when your child will be reading so we can catch them, please send in your child's name, teacher, days they will read, and the times they will be reading. We will call to catch them according to what you send us.
2. Archdale PD Reads - Each month we have 2 Archdale PD officers come and read to our classes. This month they will be reading to our Kindergarten - 2nd grade students.
3. Battle of the Book will be competing on Friday in the first round of the Randolph County Elementary Battle of the Book at Wheatmore High School. The team will compete against 13 other schools to find the top 7 teams to go to the finals. We wish them good luck and hope they make it to the finals.

Goal 2019 – 75% of RCSS students will be at or above grade level proficiency

4. The dale will be selling a limited number of dale hats. If you would like a hat, they are only $10. Please stop by the office or send in money. Below are pictures of the 2 colors we have so please be specific when sending in money.

Goal 2019 – 75% of RCSS students will be at or above grade level proficiency

Good Evening,

Here's what's happening at the dale this week.

Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday will be our WIDA testing for all ESL students.

On Wednesday, the 2nd grade classes will be taking a field trip to the Civil Rights Museum and the Greensboro Theatre to see a play on the UnderGround Railroad. Also on Wednesday, the Student Council will have an unscheduled meeting until 3pm to make a video for their Pennies of Patients campaign that is coming in March.

On Friday, the Battle of the Books team will complete at Wheatmore High School to see if they can advance to the final round of competition. We would like to wish them good luck.

Finally, the email version of this email will have pictures of hats we will be selling at the front office. The cost of a hat is $10. So if you would like one, please send in $10 or come by the office to purchase a dale hat and show your school spirit.

Thank you and I hope you have a great week.
