Parent/Guardian Consent to Publish Student Information In Springfield Platteview Community Schools Publications For the 2015-2016 School Year

Springfield Platteview Community Schools utilizes various printed and online publications to communicate information that could contain:

- The name of a student
- A student's photograph (individual or in a group)
- Examples of a student's work
- Information related to a student's participation in school sponsored activities
- Other positive information highlighting student achievement or success

Personal and confidential student information such as grades, test scores and disciplinary action will NOT be published.

Example publications include, but are not limited to: web sites (including Facebook, Twitter and/or other social media), newsletters, flyers, and print/digital media outlets. Such publications could originate in the district's central office or one of its schools. However, the district will not publish such information without the written consent of a student's parent or guardian. Consent is granted only by completing and signing this form and submitting it to the student's school office.
