

A Proclamation by the Governor

WHEREAS, bullying is an aggressive behavior that is associated with violent behaviors such as carrying weapons, fighting, vandalism, and theft; and

WHEREAS, recent studies showed that 32 percent of children reported being bullied at school and 15 percent of children reported being cyber-bullied during the school year; and

WHEREAS, children who are bullied are more likely than children who are not bullied to be depressed, lonely and anxious, to have low self-esteem and to contemplate suicide; and

WHEREAS, research has shown that bullying can be a sign of other antisocial or violent behavior and children who bully other children are more likely to be truant from school or to drop out of school; and

WHEREAS, acts of bullying create a school environment that negatively impacts the ability of children to learn not only for the children who are the victims of such acts but also for the children who witness those acts; and

WHEREAS, students, parents, educators, and community members all have a role to play in ensuring that Nevada is known as a place where bullying will not be tolerated, and where the Nevada family lives in mutual respect;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRIAN SANDOVAL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, do hereby proclaim September 29 – October 3, 2014, as

WEEK OF RESPECT

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City, this 26th day of August, 2014.
