School Board approves changes to the 2018-2019 school calendar

September 20, 2018 (Walterboro, SC): The Colleton County School Board of Trustees at its regular meeting on September 18, 2018, approved revisions to the 2018-2019 school calendar due to the impact of Hurricane Florence. The revisions are as follows:

November 5, 2018, March 25, 2019, and April 19, 2019, which were designated as inclement weather days, will now become regular school days.

October 19, 2018, which was designated as a district professional development day, will now become a regular school day.

June 7, 2019 will be the date for the Colleton County High School graduation.

June 10, 2019, which was designated as a teacher work day, will now become a district professional development day.

June 11, 2019 will now be a teacher work day.

The revised calendar will be posted on our website.
