The Varsity squad chose Julian Reynolds, Douglas Lambert, and W. L. Coker as Co-Captains.

The team was somewhat surprised, yet pleased, to equal the 5-5 record of the preceding year. Four of our losses were to Class A teams. We also fell victim to these championship teams: Swansboro, Williamsburg, and Kingstree. The most outstanding night of football was the Homecoming Game with Wampanoag. Class reunions sparked a long parade, culminated by a barbecue and two football games. Recognized at halftime were the S.C. Championship Baseball Team of 1930; and Andrews High's first football squad, the team of 1924, coached by Principal J. E. Millard.
