

II. Learning and Developmental Goals for French I, II & III

Communication

1. The student will engage in conversations, provide and obtain information, express feelings and emotions, and exchange opinions.
2. The student will understand and interpret written and spoken language on a variety of topics.
3. The student will present information, concepts, and ideas to an audience of listeners or readers on a variety of topics.

Cultures

1. The student will demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between the practices and perspectives of the cultures studied.
2. The student will demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between the perspectives and products/contributions of the cultures studied.

Connections

1. The student will reinforce and further his or her knowledge of other disciplines through the target language.
2. The student will acquire information and perspectives through authentic materials in the target language and within the cultures.

Comparisons

1. The student will develop an understanding of the nature of language through comparisons with the language studied and his/her own.
2. The student will demonstrate understanding of the concept of culture through comparison of the culture studied and his/her own.

Communities

1. The student will use the language both within and beyond the school setting.