

Career Development Objectives:

The career development course at Andrews High School is designed to expose students to careers that pay well and are in demand. Students will investigate: wages, employment outlook, opportunities for advancement, working conditions and licensing and certification requirements for a large variety of careers.