The James F. Byrnes Scholarship Program was established in 1949 to assist young South Carolinians who had lost one or both parents to obtain a college education. Since that time, the Byrnes Scholarships have been awarded to over 1,000 students.

The annual award of $3,500 is applied for each year of a four-year bachelor's degree program. The scholarship is renewed annually contingent upon the recipient's maintenance of satisfactory academic standing, need for financial assistance, and participation in Byrnes Scholar activities.

In order to be eligible for the James F. Byrnes Scholarship, a student must:

- have one or both parents deceased
- be a South Carolina resident and United States citizen
- plan to pursue a bachelor's degree at an accredited 4-year college/ university
- have a satisfactory academic record
- have received their SAT/ACT score
- demonstrate excellence in character, ability, and enterprise to indicate that the student will make worthwhile contributions to society
- have need for financial assistance in order to attend college

Students may visit the James F. Byrnes Foundation website at www.byrnesscholars.org to obtain an application packet. Applications must be submitted after January 2 and before February 1.
