ACADEMICS

ASSIGNMENTS

In order for assignments to be collected from a student's teachers, the student must miss three consecutive school days due to illness. If a parent knows in advance that his or her child will be absent from school for three (3) or more consecutive days, arrangements for assignments may be made on the day prior to or on the first day of the absence. These assignments may be picked up in the main office at a time agreed upon by parent, teacher and office staff. In an effort to maintain our focus on academics, a student who has been suspended for three or more days may get assignments for those days missed. The student has five (5) school days to make up missed assignments.

PROMOTION/RETENTION

Promotion/retention (District Policy) requires the following for a student to be promoted to the next grade: Middle school students are required to pass all four core subject areas: language arts, math, science, and social studies.

PARENT PORTAL

The Parent Portal is designed to give parents and guardians the opportunity to view student's schedules, attendance, assignments, grades, and transcripts from any Internet based system and can be accessed on the district website at www.gcsd.k12.sc.us. Login username and password should be obtained through the guidance department at. If you do not have a computer at home, computers will be available for use during the school day in our parenting area.

SEMESTER / FINAL EXAMS

Students are expected to take semester/final exams at its designated time. Students who do not take the semester/final exams will receive a zero for the exam grade. Extreme hardships must be presented to the principal, who will consider them on a case-by-case basis.

GIFTED AND TALENTED PROGRAM

The Gifted and Talented program is available to students in grades 3-8 who are identified as academically gifted under the “regulations for state-funded gifted and talented programs.” The GT program and curriculum is presented in the students’ language arts and math academic periods.

The GT artistic program is available to students in grades 6-8 who have special interests and abilities in music, art, and drama. A seminar is planned to challenge students to recognize and expand their creative abilities.

GUIDANCE FUNCTIONS AND SERVICES

Guidance is an integral part of all aspects of CBMS. The guidance program is responsible for crisis intervention, individual and group counseling, career education and planning, new student orientation, academic scheduling, report cards, testing, and parent conference scheduling. The program is designed to promote student growth and learning by maximizing “self-awareness and interpersonal skills” (South Carolina Comprehensive Developmental Guidance and Counseling Program.) In addition, counselors strive to meet School-to-Work goals through the SCOIS system and career planning folders. Counselors are available to students through an open-door policy. Parents, teachers, and administrators may refer students for counseling or testing. The Guidance Department emphasizes school beliefs by promoting individualism and the belief that all students are capable of learning. Through conflict mediation, we promote ideas that all students have the right to live, work, and learn in a safe environment. Parents are encouraged to be partners in students’ growth and development.

HOMEBOUND INSTRUCTION

Homebound instruction is provided by the Georgetown County School District for those students who because of illness or accidents cannot be instructed in school. Students or parents will request a homebound instruction form from Ms. Cohen (CBMS) or Ms. Becky Wheeler in Special Services at the J.B. Beck Administration Building. The form will be completed and signed by the student’s doctor. Upon completion, the form must then be returned to Ms. Wheeler in Special Services.

HONOR ROLLS

Honor Roll – Students who maintain at least a “B” average in each subject per grading period are placed on the school’s Honor Roll.

Principal’s Honor Roll – Students who maintain an “A” average in each subject per grading period are placed on the Principal’s Honor Roll.

MATERIALS REQUIRED FOR SCHOOL EACH DAY

All students at CBMS are required to have materials (pens, pencils, paper, notebook, textbook, etc.) in all classes each day.

MEDIA CENTER

The Media Center promotes the overall academic program at our school. The following are guidelines for its use:

Students are to have their picture I.D. with the bar code to be able to check out books.

- Books are checked out for a period of two weeks and can be renewed once for an additional two weeks.
- Students must have a signed and dated pass to be admitted to the Media Center.
- Students are responsible for all materials they check out from the Media Center. Lost books and materials must be paid for by the student that checks them from the Media Center. No report cards will be issued to students with owed fees or fines.
- Students will receive personal log ins to use on the computers and are expected to save their documents to their personal “H” Drives or Flash Drives.
- Flash Drives need to be scanned for viruses before they are used on the computers.

STUDENT INTERIM/REPORT CARDS

The interim and report cards provide students and parents with an official statement of the academic and attendance record of a student in each subject that a student is enrolled. If a parent or student feels that a report card is incorrect, then the student and/or parent have FIVE (5) school days after the student receives that interim/report card to report the matter to the guidance department. If the complaint has not been reported to the guidance department within the five-day (5) period, the report card becomes an official document. The interim report is delivered to the student at the end of each four and one-half weeks and the report card at the end of each nine weeks grading period. It is the responsibility of each student and his/her parents to make certain that they have received and read each report card carefully. All fees owed must be paid in order for students to receive their final report cards in June.

TEXTBOOKS

Textbooks are owned by the State Department of Education, and each student is responsible for textbooks issued to him or her. Students should check the textbooks carefully when issued and be sure the teacher is aware of any previous damage or abuse to the textbooks.

All basic texts are assigned to students for their use during the school year. Textbooks are to be kept clean and handled carefully.

The student's name, teacher's name, and an assigned number are written on the book label in case the book is misplaced. In the event that a student's textbook is missing, he or she must immediately inform the subject teacher. Any textbooks turned in to the office will be returned to the subject teacher or the book room.

Students will be required to pay for missing or damaged textbooks. Lending or borrowing state textbooks is discouraged.

ATTENDANCE

STUDENT ABSENCES AND EXCUSES

Excuses for absences must be presented to the attendance clerk, (not to the student's teachers) prior to 8:00 A.M. upon returning to school. The attendance office is located in the main office at the front of the school building. It is the student's and parent's responsibility to obtain and turn in the excuse to the attendance clerk.

Students will be allowed three school days to make up missed work after excused absences.

Students must accept responsibility for contacting teachers for make-up work.

Absences of several consecutive days or more may constitute an extended period of time for make-up work. The principal or the assistant principal over attendance will make decisions concerning such situations.

According to State Law, a student may miss no more than ten (10) days per year. This includes unexcused absences and absences excused by parent notes. Absences after this point can only be excused with a doctor's note or court document. Parents or guardians may document up to ten (10) days of illness in a year course; parental notes after this point will only allow students to make up missed assignments. All other absences due to illness will be unexcused unless there is documentation from a physician or other health care provider

ABSENCES DUE TO SCHOOL-APPROVED ACTIVITIES

If a student misses class because of a school activity or function approved by the principal, the student is not counted as absent in class and will be allowed to make up any missed work. The student must accept the responsibility for contacting the teacher for make-up work.

NO CREDIT (N/C) FOR COURSES DUE TO EXCESSIVE ABSENCES

Students who have excessive absences, as described above will receive N/C in place of their grades on their report cards. This means that the students will not receive credit for the courses in question, and a grade of 69 will be assigned for each of the courses. Students must not have more than ten (10) absences out of a 180 day course, unless the absences have been excused by doctor or court notes. If a student and/or his or her parents feel that an error has been made, they will have until the last day of the term to meet with the principal to discuss the situation.

Signing Out of School

Only those people designated by parents or guardians and listed in the CBMS computer system as having parent or guardian permission to do so may sign the named student out of school. We request that the person signing a student out be able to present a picture I.D. upon request and that you use the computer to sign a student out of school. No one else will be allowed to take the student off campus during school hours. Students signing out of school must do so properly in the main office; otherwise, students will be considered cutting class. When a student signs out of school, absences will apply in the classes the student missed, and the student will need to bring an excuse in order to make up missed work and/or to have the absences excused. A student may have no more than ten (10) absences in any single class, unless they are excused with doctor or court notes.
