Reverend Wallace J. McKnight, Sr was a spiritual pastor and minister in Georgetown County, a community activist, hardworking businessman, and a friend to all. He strongly believed in the education of young people. The son of sharecroppers, he believed that through hard work and a faith in God we all can succeed. It is because of his vision and his beliefs in the contributions that young people of the future can make that his family started this scholarship in his name.

A $500.00 check will be sent to the 4 year college in the name of the applicant who displays the values and qualifications deemed important to the late Reverend Wallace J. McKnight, Sr.
