Red Ribbon Week

Rachel Bourne and Jessica Burns

Beginning October 23 and ending October 27, Georgetown Middle School will be taking part in Red Ribbon Week. Since its beginning in 1985, the Red Ribbon has touched the lives of millions of people around the world. In response to the murder of DEA Agent Enrique Camarena, angered parents and youth in communities across the country began wearing Red Ribbons as a symbol of their commitment to raise awareness of the killing and destruction caused by drugs in America. In 1988, NFP sponsored the first National Red Ribbon Celebration. Today, the Red Ribbon serves as a catalyst to mobilize communities to educate youth and encourage participation in drug prevention activities.

Costumes

Seth C. Hillman

On October 26, 2017, students will be allowed to wear costumes as part of Red Ribbon Week. Students are not allowed to wear masks or face paint or dress as a clown. Participating students must pay 10 Bulldog Stamps to their homeroom teacher between October 23rd -25th. If you have any questions, please contact the school.

Unity Day

Wednesday, October 25, 2017

What are your true colors when it comes to bullying? If you care about keeping your school safe, make your color ORANGE on Unity Day. That's the day everyone can come together—in schools, communities, and online—and send one large ORANGE message of support, hope, and unity. To show our support against bullying, GMS students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to wear ORANGE on Wednesday, October 25. Everyone is also invited to participate in the 4th Annual United Together Against Bullying Walk. The walk will start at East Bay Park beginning at 3:45 and conclude at the fountain on Front Street. See guidance if you are interested in participating in the walk.
