Kindergarten News

Kindergarten classes have been learning all about hibernation, migration, and animal adaptations during the cold winter months. We have enjoyed our winter units very much and were so excited when we got to see a tiny bit of snow last weekend! Students enjoyed an author study on Jan Brett as well. Please remember to send your child to school with a coat during colder weather and always write your child's name in jackets to assure they get back home safely.

PRODUCE NET BAGS NEEDED

Please collect any of the net bags that apples, onions, oranges, etc. comes in a send them to Mrs. Meador in the art room. They are needed for an art project. Thanks so much
