First Grade News

First graders have been busy reading and writing. Please keep reading with your child daily in order for them to meet their end of year reading goal. The 100th day of school was on Monday, and all the first grade classes celebrated with a variety of fun activities. Some of us are finishing our study of historical figures who have made important contributions to our country. Other classes have already started the study of the Earth's materials. We will be celebrating Valentine's Day next week. Roses are red. Violets are blue. Sugar is sweet, and First Graders are, too!

The 1st and 2nd grade classes collected food for the Baskerville Food Pantry in recognition of 100 days of school. Each second grade class had a goal to bring in 100 cans of food. There are 8 second grade classes. Together the 1st and 2nd grade classes donated over 1000 cans of food to our local community pantry!

Celebrate Black History

The first licensed African American female pilot was named Bessie Coleman.

Born in Atlanta, Texas in 1892, Bessie Coleman grew up in a world of harsh poverty, discrimination and segregation. She moved to Chicago at 23 to seek her fortune, but found little opportunity there as well. Wild tales of flying exploits from returning WWI soldiers first inspired her to explore aviation, but she faced a double stigma in that dream being both African American and a woman.

She set her sights on France in order to reach her dreams and began studying French. In 1920, Coleman crossed the ocean with all of her savings and the financial support of Robert Abbott, one of the first African American millionaires. Over the next seven months, she learned to fly and in June of 1921, the Fédération Aéronautique Internationale awarded her an international pilot's license. Wildly celebrated upon her return to the United States, reporters turned out in droves to greet her.

Coleman performed at numerous airshows over the next five years, performing heart thrilling stunts, encouraging other African Americans to pursue flying, and refusing to perform where Blacks were not admitted. When she tragically died in a plane accident in 1926, famous writer and equal rights advocate Ida B. Wells presided over her funeral. An editorial in the "Dallas Express" stated, "There is reason to believe that the general public did not completely sense the size of her contribution to the achievements of the race as such."

Pre-Kindergarten (Child Development) and Kindergarten Registration

Registration for children entering the pre-kindergarten (child development) program for four-year-olds or the kindergarten program for five-year-olds in Georgetown County School District will be held Wednesday, March 1st from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. and on Thursday, March 2nd from 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. at each public elementary school in the county.

Georgetown County Schools offer a program for four-year-old children at each public elementary school. A child must be four years old on or before September 1, 2017 to register for the pre-kindergarten program. Registering a child does not guarantee acceptance into the program as children must be tested to determine if they are eligible.

All children five years old on or before September 1, 2017 are required to register and attend kindergarten unless parents sign a waiver accepting responsibility for their child not being in public school. This waiver is available at the school. Full-day kindergarten is available at all public elementary schools in Georgetown County.

Parents should bring their child's legal birth certificate and current South Carolina Certificate of Immunization (shot record) when registering their child. Proof of residency and/or legal guardianship will be required by the school administration.

For more information, parents may contact the principal of the elementary school in their child's attendance area.
