My Handprints

My dirty little handprint
 I've left on every wall
 And on the drawers and tabletops
 I've really marked them all
 But here is one that won't rub off
 I'm giving it to you
 Because I am so thankful
 For grandparents like you!

HAPPY GRANDPARENTS DAY

Waccamaw Supports Warriors

Waccamaw Elementary School is supporting deployed marines this year. We are kicking off our event on September 11th and continuing through November 11th, Veteran's Day. We will send care packages to marines accompanied by students' notes and artwork. These care packages will include a variety of items that we will collect in a box to the right of the office. They have informed us that they are in need of toiletries, spices, powdered drink mixes, snacks, and reading materials. I have placed a list of examples on the box that will be used for collection.

First Grade News

The first graders at WES have been working hard on building classroom community and routine. We have made many friends, had our pictures taken and our eyes and ears checked. We are ready for a fantastic school year. We are working on narrative writing, reading our just right books, adding and learning about goods and services. We enjoyed seeing all of our Grandparents on Thursday. Thanks for coming

Transportation Changes

Please make transportation arrangements with your child before they leave home in the morning and send a note to the teacher notifying her of the change. Please do your best to not call the school with any transportation changes unless it's an emergency. The front office staff will not take any transportation changes after 12 noon unless it is an emergency.

Sales are going great! We are almost half way to our goal but we still have a ways to go. So please keep selling books!

If you don't intend to sell, please send back the book that was sent home so we can sell it. We have people requesting additional books. Thank you!
