

Name: _____

Chapter 30: Fruits

Complete the following puzzle using chapter 30 (pg. 413) in your textbook

Across

- 3. Fruits that have a thick rind.
- 4. These fruits have a single hard seed called a pit or a stone.
- 8. Also called star fruit.
- 10. A special protein.
- 11. Small fruits that are juicy and have a thin skin.
- 12. Fruits such as apples have a layer of this added to make them look more attractive.
- 13. Small strips or pieces grated or shaved with a peeler of a lemon or lime.
- 17. Fruits that are small for their size and have poor color and texture. They have been picked too soon.
- 18. Fruits that are very firm, lack flavor, and have not yet reached top eating quality.
- 19. These fruits have thick, firm flesh with tender, edible skin.
- 22. This process restores a dried food to its former condition by adding water.
- 23. Small fruit with a rough red shell and a single seed.

Down

- 1. These fruits have a thin membrane separating inner flesh segments.
- 2. The fruit of varieties of cactus.
- 3. Fruits that have reached their full size and color.
- 5. Fresh fruits and vegetables are known as this.
- 6. The chemical reaction that occurs when oxygen reacts with an enzyme.
- 7. Fruits that are grown in tropical and subtropical climates.
- 9. The return of green chlorophyll to skin of ripe oranges.
- 14. A refrigerated dessert with layers that may include cake, jam, or jelly, fruit, custard, and whipped cream.
- 15. Fruits that are tender and have a pleasant aroma.
- 16. Cut-up fruit dipped in batter and deep-fried until golden brown.
- 20. Dishes that are not sweet.
- 21. The part of a plant that holds the seeds.