Another Victory for the Windtalkers

Article and pictures by Jamie McNair

The Waccamaw Competitive Speech and Debate team brought home yet another victory! The team took first place overall at Berkeley High School's tournament, held on Saturday, Nov. 23. That's two weekends in a row that the team has brought home first place! The Windtalkers dominated the tournament. The following students earned individual awards:

Jamie McNair— 1st place in Humorous Interpretation

Kenzie Confer— 1st place in both Oral Interpretation and Children's Literature and 2nd place in Original Oratory

Alex Jaouiche— 1st place in both Novice Reading and Declamation and 2nd place in Impromptu Speaking

Sara Ness— 2nd place in both Novice Reading and Declamation

Coya Darcangelo— 2nd place in Dramatic Interpretation and 3rd place in Novice Reading

Declyn Drezja— 2nd place in Children's Literature and 3rd place in Declamation

Justin Crawford— 3rd place in Lincoln/Douglas Debate

Sam Averette— 3rd place in Dramatic Interpretation

Jacob Homan— 4th place in Children's Literature and 5th place in both Impromptu Speaking and Declamation

Sam Averette and Jamie McNair— 6th place in Impromptu Duet Acting

The Speech and Debate team's hard work has been paying off. They are working very diligently to prepare for their upcoming tournament Dec. 14th against Academic Magnet. Coach Lawson and the team would like to send out a special thank you to Mr. Dewalt for volunteering his time to help out. Congratulations to the Windtalkers. Keep up the great work!

It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas

This year, the WHS Student Council asked each club, sport, and organization to decorate an artificial wreath to represent their group. Many groups opted to participate, and helped fill the atrium with Christmas spirit. Thanks to all those who participated!

Mr. Matthews and Mr. Bethea's art classes have also been busy creating festive ornaments that you will find displayed throughout the school. Below is a few of the artwork pieces.

WHS Fall Band Concert

By Hannah Wolf, pictures by Matt Lee

On Thursday night, November 21st, the WHS concert band held their first concert performance of the year. The concert began with an ensemble played by the freshman band. The ensemble consisted of: “West Highlands Sojourn” including “Stow-On-The-Wold” and “Bradford Ballade” by Robert Sheldon, “Where the Black Hawk Soars” by Robert W. Smith, “Fiero” by Steve Hodges, “Pirates of the Caribbean” by Klaus Badelt, “Carry On My Wayward Son” by Kerry Livgren, and “Eye of the Tiger” by Frankie Sullivan. During the freshman ensemble, band director Chris Graham called Mary Sinclair Filchak, current drum major of the WHS Marching Warriors, to conduct the band.

Following the freshman band, the upperclassmen band played an ensemble made up of: “Visions of Flight” by Robert Sheldon, “Pirates” by Douglas Akey, and “Homage: Three Tapestries” including “Tapestry One,” “Tapestry Two,” and “Tapestry Three” by David R. Holsinger. It was a great night of wonderful music.

The band is now practicing for the winter concert that will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 17th. The concert will feature the middle and high school bands.

Marching with the Macy's Great American Marching Band

By Hannah Wolf

On Thanksgiving Day, sophomore Sarah McMillian performed with the Macy's Great American Marching Band in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City. A few months ago, she received a letter of invitation to apply for the marching band. She sent in an application to see if she could even get accepted. A few weeks later, she received another letter from Music Festivals-an acceptance letter. She had to pay $1500 to participate and after looking forward to it for months, she finally got to fly out to New York City on Thanksgiving week and rehearse with her fellow band members. After a few days of rehearsing, they opened the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade with a spectacular performance. They played "Can't Hold Us" and a section of the marching band performed a short dance routine during a breathtaking drumline feature. Later on, they closed the parade with Santa after walking 2.65 miles. Sarah McMillian said, "I had no idea what to expect. Walking into the first rehearsal, I realized how much we would have to work. Through the work, we grew closer than ever imagined. The marching band turned into something much greater than an ensemble, we turned into a family. I can't wait for next year!" Congratulations Sarah on an amazing performance!

2013 Top Turkey "SEÑOR ARIAS"

By Karina Kostova, pictures by Emma Karst

Top Turkey, an annual fundraiser sponsored by the FCCLA Club, is a competition between the teachers to see who can raise the most money for needy families from Tideland Hospice. Teachers encouraged students to participate by donating money to buy feathers for their turkey. It was a tough competition with five teachers having over $100 worth of feathers. Coming in 5th place with a donation of $114 was Mrs. O'Neil, 4th place was Ms. Noll with $200.40, 3rd place was Mr. Kibler with $225.70, 2nd place was Ms. Herndon with $244.00, and taking the title of TOP TURKEY for the second year in a row was Señor Arias with a total donation of $537.40! As an incentive for his students to buy feathers for his turkey, Señor Arias said he would shave his head, wear a turkey costume, eat a cow tongue, and let his students shoot him with paintball guns at Stables Park if he won.

A big thanks to everyone who participated! This year the school raised $1490.70; beating last year's goal of $1259.15. Way to go, Warrior family!

Congratulations to the Waccamaw High School Competitive Cheer team:

7th Grader: Ava Markham

8th Graders: Danielle Gaddy, Calee McClellan and Emma Baumann

9th Graders: Coleman Lucas and Hannah Nelson

10th Grader: Olivia Satcher

11th Graders: Kay Kay Getz, Kyra Moree and Alli Ward

12th Graders: Breanna Auton, Victoria Boatman, Erin Courtright, Hunter DeChamplain, Khalil Nicholson, Mariah Reed, Kemmie Smith, Bailey Strickland, Jocelyn Frasier and Arden Lee. This competition was the last for these seniors.

Competitive Cheer Takes 4th Place at State!

By Jordan McNair

On Saturday, November 23rd, the Waccamaw High School Competitive Cheerleaders participated in their last competition of the season. The team took 4th out of 16 teams at the state competition. "They knew what they needed to do, so they went out there and gave it their all. They really came together as a team this time and ended up doing the best they've ever done. Their energy level and confidence really showed on the mat. I'm so proud of my Warriors for giving it their all. This competition was just icing on the cake from the great season they've had," says Coach Hagaman.

Season Opener for the Wrestling Team

In its five seasons, WHS Wrestling team had its best season last year with over 20 team wins, three wrestlers with over 40 individual wins, and a state champion. This year the team is looking forward to another great season led by six returning starters Jeremy Lee, Gabe Pope, Bobby Walters, Arman Singh, Conner Summer (captain), and Parker Williams (captain).

On Monday, Dec. 2nd, WHS had its season opener. The team beat Cross 42-24, Georgetown 66-12, but lost to St. James 42-33. Coach Cook said, "We dropped a very close match with St. James after forfeiting 24 points. We actually won six of ten matches but had to forfeit four." Jeremy Lee, Gabe Pope, Bobby Walters, Arman Singh and Conner Summer all went 3-0 with Walters and Lee each recording three pins. Great start to your season, Warriors!

On Wednesday, Dec. 4th, WHS had its second match of the season. The Warriors lost to Socastee 41-30 giving up 24 pts. in forfeits. Jeremy Lee, Gabe Pope, Arman Singh, Conner Summer, Shea Burke, and Parker Williams were all victorious for the Warriors. Coach Cook stated, "Hopefully the forfeits will soon be coming to an end as a few more men have joined the team and will be ready by Christmas!" Lee, Pope and Singh are all 4-0 on the season thus far!

The wrestling team will host their first home match on Dec. 11th. Come out and show your support.

Fishing Team Takes 1st Place in Tournament

By Jed Parreno, pictures by Dequan Mazyck and Coach Matthews

On November 23rd, the Waccamaw Hawg Hunters hosted the Fishing Team Open tournament held at Carroll Campbell Marine Complex in Georgetown. Teams of two fished from 7:00am to 1:00pm with good weather until noon when it became windy and rainy. Coach Matthews said, "The students enjoyed themselves with each team catching over eight fish on a variety of lures." Teammates Dequan Mazyck and Daniel Rourk took 1st place in the tournament with a combined weigh-in of 11.04 lbs., each receiving a trophy. Teammates Collin Newton and Chase Daniels took 2nd place with a combined weigh-in of 8.06 lbs., each receiving a tackle bag. Daniel Rourk also won a $50 gift card for bringing in the biggest fish of the day at 6.04 lbs. Great job Hawg Hunters!

The Hawg Hunters plan to compete again in February.

Basketball Tournament Play

By Emma Karst and Braedan Black

Over the Thanksgiving holiday, the Boys' Varsity participated in the Georgetown Dental Shoot-Out held at Georgetown High School, Girls' Varsity participated in the Lady Braves Sand & Hoops Invitational at Socastee High School, and the Girls' JV and Varsity participated in the Ruthena V. Tucker Invitational at Carvers Bay High School. Below are the results.

Dental Shoot-Out

The Boys' Varsity team played against Andrews on Friday, Nov. 22nd, the first day of the Georgetown Dental Shoot-Out. They played a tough game but unfortunately, during overtime, the Yellow Jackets outscored Waccamaw 77-66. Leading the team in points was Rob Ferraro with 20 points, Adonis Williams with 11 points, Jack Dwyer with 10 points, and Jemon Smalls with 8 points.

On Monday, Nov. 25th, the team played Carvers Bay in the consolation game. The boys achieved their first win of the season against the Bears with a score of 76-64. Coach Mike Quinn had this to say about the game: "It was a total team victory with a balanced scoring attack." Adonis Williams scored 24 points, the most in the game, and was named to the All Tournament Team. Players also scoring in the game were Jack Dwyer with 16 points, Jemon Smalls with 15 points, Justin Busby with 7 points, Rob Ferraro with 6 points, and Stephon Funnye and Doug Roe, each with 4 points

Lady Braves Sand & Hoop Invitational

On Tuesday, Nov. 26, the Girls' Varsity team played Cheraw losing 60-43. The top three leading scorers were Alexis Grove with 14 points, Kadajah Smalls with 13, and Jazmyn Torrance with 7 points. On Wednesday, varsity played Carolina Forest losing 42-27. Alexis Grove led the team in points and was also named All Tournament Selection.

Ruthena V. Tucker Invitational

On Saturday, Nov. 30th, the Girls' JV team defeated Carvers Bay in the first game of the Invitational, but lost to Georgetown in the championship game. The Girls' Varsity team lost to Carvers Bay in their first game eliminating them from the tournament. Kadajah Smalls was named All Tournament Selection.

Boys' Varsity

Congratulations to the Boys' Varsity team on their win against Christian Academy on Tuesday, Dec. 3rd. Their game against the Saints ended with a final score of 64-59. Jack Dwyer had a season high 10 assists while Rob Ferraro headed the team with 11 rebounds. Scoring players included Adonis Williams with 21 points and Stephon Funnye with 12 points. Jemon Smalls and Justin Busby also scored a combined 14 points, while Doug Roe scored the go ahead basket with a minute left in play.

Varsity's next game is Friday, Dec. 6th at St. James.

Girls and Boys JV

On Monday, Dec. 2nd, the boys and girls JV basketball teams had their season opener against Andrews. The girls' team dominated the court throughout the game beating the Yellow Jackets with a final score of 41-21. The top three scorers were Davion Funnye with 14 points, Samirah Murray with 9 points, and Jazmyn Torrance with 8 points. The boys' team started their season with three returning players (Darnell Dadd, Jared Hawkins, and Mace Lieberman) and a number of new players. The Warriors fought hard keeping the score close, but in the end came up five points short losing 41-36.

JV played last night at St. James but the results were not available at press time.
