Both of the academic teams will practice every Wednesday until February 27th when they compete at the district competition. Congratulations on your progress and good luck in February!

Two WHS Students Receive Notification for an Interview in the Teaching Fellows Program

By Matt Lee

Two seniors in Mrs. Humowitz's Teacher Cadet class have been offered interviews for the South Carolina Teaching Fellows Program. Every year, the program provides Fellowships for up to 175 high school seniors who desire to teach in South Carolina, exhibit high academic achievement, and have contributed to their school and community. The South Carolina universities involved in the program are: Anderson University, Charleston Southern University, College of Charleston, Columbia College, Francis Marion University, Lander University, Newberry College, USC Columbia, USC Upstate, and Winthrop University. Students who are selected into the Teaching Fellows Program receive up to $6,000 a year for four years and agree to teach in South Carolina for the amount of years that they received funding from the Fellowship.

Alexis Knowlin and Robbie Green completed an online application for the Teaching Fellows Program, and were selected to receive an interview. The interview will assess their communication skills, commitment to teaching, problem solving ability, originality and knowledge of world and educational processes. In late March or early April, Knowlin and Green will be notified if they have received a Teaching Fellows award. If awarded a Fellowship, they must apply and be accepted by one of the universities involved in the program. Mrs. Humowitz has had one other student from her Teacher Cadet classes that received the Teaching Fellows, 2011 graduate Olivia Gay, who is currently studying at Lander University. "I'm really proud of Alexis and Robbie for going after this wonderful opportunity and I am hoping that they make it in to the program," said Mrs. Humowitz.

Art Institute Visits FACS Classes

By Karina Kostova, Pictures provided by Ms. Hossa

On January 14th, Jessica Levkoff from the Art Institute Culinary School visited Ms. Hossa's Family and Consumer Science classes. Levkoff is a culinary specialist and is now opening her own bakery called Charleston Cheesecakes. In Ms. Hossa's class, she talked about the art institute and discussed the programs that are offered there, focusing on food and fashion related majors. Later, in a cooking demonstration, she used molecular gastronomy to make fruit caviar, her own spin on peach cobbler. She also taught the students how to make homemade whipping cream. The caviar and whipping cream were then served on vanilla wafers to the students.

Materials Needed:

11 oz. of Kerns Peach Nectar
3 grams calcium chloride
3, 16.9 oz. bottled water
2, 2-qt mixing bowls
Digital gram scale
2, 4" fine mesh stainless steel strainers
3 grams sodium alginate
1 immersion blender
2, 4-qt. mixing bowl
3 squirt bottles
Plastic spoons

Note: You can use lots of different liquids in this experiment, such as soda, coconut milk, tomato juice, grape fruit juice or any fruit nectars. The amount of solids and acidity in the liquid you choose is critical to success. Experiment with the amount of sodium alginate and types of liquids used until good caviar is made.

FRUIT CAVIAR

Procedure:

1. Add desired flavoring liquid to a 4-qt. mixing bowl.
2. Add water from one 16.9 oz. bottle to a 2-qt. mixing bowl.
3. Add water from two 16.9 oz. bottles to a 4-qt. mixing bowl.
4. Add the 3 grams sodium alginate to the 11oz of Nectar.
5. Mix with a blender until a smooth gel is achieved. Chunks of sodium alginate will clog the squeeze bottles.
6. Add the 3grams of Calcium Chloride; dissolve in 2qt bowl containing 16.9 oz. of water.
7. Strain the gel into 3 plastic squirt bottles, dividing evenly.
8. Drip the gel into the Calcium Chloride solution. You will see caviar begin to form.
9. Leave the caviar in the solution for approx. 1 minute to allow the outer surface to form a skin. The center should remain liquid and burst with flavor when you bite into it! Leaving it in the solution too long will result in caviar that is solid all the way through.
10. Remove caviar using a strainer from the calcium chloride solution when ready and rinse with fresh water. Strain well.
11. Serve!

End Distracted Driving

What is Distracted Driving?

~Driving while engaged in any activity that could divert a person's attention away from the primary task of driving.

On Friday, January 24th, Waccamaw High students attended an assembly provided by WAVE to promote safe driving habits. The "End Distracted Driving" presentation was given by guest speaker George Jebailey from Florence, SC. The Casey Feldman Foundation was founded by a couple who lost their daughter, Casey, to a distracted driver when she was just 21 years old. After meeting Casey's family, Mr. Jebailey began spreading awareness of distracted driving. The slideshow presented by Mr. Jebailey was created by Casey's father and it explained the three types of distracted driving: manual, visual, and cognitive. Manual distraction is when the driver is physically doing something distracting such as texting or even just changing the radio station. Visual distraction is when the driver is not paying attention to the road and is looking at something else. Cognitive distraction is when the driver's mind isn't completely focused on driving. Various examples of these distractions were presented using videos incorporated within the slideshow along with videos that showed the consequences of distracted driving. Students learned that about ten people die every day from distracted driving, 25% of teens are more likely to drive distracted, and that adults are guilty of distracted driving too! Mr. Jebailey concluded the presentation by encouraging everyone to sign and take home a pledge to family and friends to help end distracted driving. Every accident involving a distracted driver is 100% preventable; Don't make the selfish choice of driving distracted.

Healthy Learners

One vision.
Half a million smiles.

Beginning February 1st, 2014, thousands of dentists across the country will take time from their practices to help underserved children get the oral health care they need. Give Kids A Smile® is an annual volunteer program that provides free educational, preventive, and restorative services to children from low-income families. This event is part of the American Dental Association's Give Kids A Smile Program.

WHY: Nearly one in four children, aged two to 11 years old have untreated cavities in their baby teeth, according to the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Poor oral health has been related to decreased school performance. Many children enrolled in Medicaid receive no dental services throughout the year. Give Kids A Smile is held annually to:

- provide free dental services to local, qualifying children from underserved families
- raise awareness of the epidemic of untreated dental disease occurring here and across the country
- raise awareness of the need to build local public and private partnerships to increase access to oral health care to solve this crisis

Healthy Learners Georgetown, Horry Georgetown Technical College and local dentists have partnered to serve the children in Georgetown County for this event.
