Coming Home Week Recap

Written by Hannah Wolf, Pictures by Emma Karst, Dennis Amuser and the Cheerleader's Sport page

*King and Queen of Hearts
Stephon Funnye & Madison Bass*

February 3rd-7th, between our two winter storms, was Coming Home Week for WHS; it was filled with dress-up days, a banner competition, the Stud Muffin volleyball game, and a pep rally which recognized winter sports and announced the King and Queen of Hearts, Stephon Funnye and Madison Bass. Seniors showed the most participation during all five of the dress-up days, however, the freshmen won the banner contest for having the most creative banner.

Before the pep rally, a team of boys from each grade played in the annual Stud Muffin volleyball game. First up was the freshmen-junior game with a win from the juniors. The second game was between the sophomores and the seniors with a win from the seniors. In the championship game between the juniors and seniors, the seniors held a steady lead but were eventually defeated by the junior class, making them the Stud Muffin Champions of 2014. Junior players included: Jackson Stacy, Blake Marsh, Zac Benton, Davis Hogan, Carson Stecz, and Richard Rasheed coached by Cheyenne Bellamare and Catherine Kochi.

ICE STORM SHUTS DOWN SCHOOL

In less than three weeks, schools were shut down again for bad weather. At the end of January, schools were closed for two days followed by a 2-hour delay the next day. This latest storm brought more ice creating fallen tree limbs, power outages, and three days out of school. Everyone is asking, "Is this it, or are we in for another winter storm?" Groundhog Punxsutawney Phil predicted six more weeks of winter weather. What do you think?

As far as making up days, Tuesday was a make-up day, but other days have not yet been determined.

As part of the pep rally, junior Connor Graham coordinated a pie-throwing contest to help raise money for FOWLSO, a student organization in charge of building the new Waccamaw Library. Students could buy a raffle ticket and if they were chosen, they could throw pies at the teachers who were chosen from their own raffle. Overall, Connor raised $100 for FOWLSO. The pie-throwing money will go towards the teen section of the new library which they are hoping to fill with new books, faster computers, and even iPads.

The students who threw pies were: Ross Medure, Jonathan Vermont, Sophie Bennani, Mac Atkinson, Jed Parreno, and Ariana Senn; the chosen teachers were: Mrs. Aguilar, Ms. Herndon, Mrs. Henderson, Mr. Bethea, Mr. Dewalt, and Dr. Hammel. By far, Dr. Hammel came out with the most pie on his face when Deputy Reagan slammed a pie in his face.

At the Coming Home pep rally, Caroline Lalla got quite a surprise. After being asked to do a series of flips across the gym floor, she turned around to see her boyfriend, Tanner Hanson, waiting with a sign saying "PROM?" and a bouquet of roses. Of course, she said yes and the senior section cheered for them both as the public promposal was accepted.

The pep rally finished with the traditional senior circle; it was a bitter-sweet moment as the Alma Mater played and the seniors came together for their final senior circle.

Coming Home Week ended Friday night with the girls' and boys' varsity basketball teams each defeating the Aynor Blue Jackets in the Warrior Coliseum. At half-time of the game the Ice Princesses and Mr. Irresistible were announced. For the week, the cheerleaders had to avoid talking to the basketball players while the players used all their charm to make them talk. Cheerleaders Jamie McNair, Hunter DeChamplain, Mariah Reed, Sarah Hutto, Kemmie Smith, and Caroline Lalla won Ice Princesses and basketball player Rob Ferraro won Mr. Irresistible.

PROM FASHION SHOW

Pictures by Sarah Ball

Tuesday night, Feb. 11th, Waccamaw held their annual Prom Fashion Show and Dinner. The weather outside was cold and rainy, but as you walked into the cafeteria you were transformed into the beauty of spring. Beautiful gowns and handsome tuxedos were modeled by some of the juniors. Outback provided some delicious food and musical entertainment was performed by Ms. Warr and several chorus students. Bobby Walters was the emcee for the night and Mike and Paula Farish were the deejays. It was a great night enjoyed by everyone.

Mrs. Tester and Mrs. Griffin did an awesome job organizing the event. They would like to send a special thanks to the staff of Fancy Frocks Prom Bridal & Tuxedo for providing the clothes, Beautiful Salon and Spa for the hair and makeup, Outback for providing the food, WAVE, Pepsi, Jo's Tropical Tan, Jan's Barbershop, Student Council, WHS Athletic Dept., Mary Kay Rep. Donna Saguto, Grace Church Women's Group, Bistro 217, Mr. Minkler for donating the 50/50 raffle back to the prom, Stella Notaro, Ed Kaneday, Brad & Nancy Carver, and the WHS Staff.

Prom is just around the corner, April 12th, and it's never too early to start shopping.

Three for One

Written by Matt Lee and Dennis Amuser. Pictures by Matt Lee

Last Friday and Saturday night, the Waccamaw High Acting Troupe presented "A Night of One Acts" featuring two hilarious comedies and one powerful drama, Hard Candy, Boise, Idaho, and Nine.

Hard Candy, by Jonathan Rand, featured Evelyn Frobey, Mac Atkinson, Maston Clark, Sydney Wyndham, John Horton, Sara Ness, D'etta Green, and Margaret Stacy. The play depicted numerous outrageous interviews at a business, as each interviewee became the interviewer.

Boise, Idaho, by Sean Michael Welch, featured Kenize Confer, Aaron Lampe, Gibran Trujillo-Pelcastre, and Brontë Rapps. The play showed a lone woman narrating the life of a random couple sitting in a café. As the couple slowly drifted into the roles that the narrator created, madness ensued.

Nine, by Jane Shepard, featured Ariana Senn and Andi Stevenson. The play depicted women in captivity.

This weekend the Acting Troupe Varsity and Competitive teams will travel to Winthrop University to compete for a state title. Good luck, actors!

NHS "Spruces Up" the School

Written by Sarah Ball

On Saturday, Feb. 5th, National Honor Society (NHS) members dusted, swept, and scrubbed Waccamaw High from 8:30 until 11:00. Those who arrived at the school before 8:30 received chicken biscuits, fruit, water, and juice. After breakfast, the volunteers were separated into groups led by two or three seniors. Each group was assigned a section of the school to clean and was given a list of cleaning tasks. While music played through the loudspeakers, the groups spent hours cleaning classrooms, the gym, the lobby, and the office. The cleaning consisted of scraping gum off of desks and chairs, disinfecting table and desktops, and wiping down the sections in the lockers that hold the lock. The students ended the morning by cleaning up their breakfast trash, wiping down cafeteria tables, and taking a group photo. Mrs. Noyes, the advisor of NHS who also helped clean said, "I am proud of my members; they worked well and did a great job cleaning."

Speech and Debate Tournament

Written by Jamie McNair, Picture by Mrs. Lawson

The Waccamaw Windtalkers traveled to Southside High School in Greenville, SC to compete against teams from California, Tennessee, West Virginia, and the Carolinas. Congratulations to Amani Huell who placed 3rd in Impromptu Speaking and 8th out of 72 in Oral Interpretation.

The team warms up in the hotel before the Southside Tournament.

FCA Brings Joy to Residents of St. Elizabeth's Place

Pictures by Emily Blaylock and Mrs. Tester

Even though students did not have school on Friday, Feb. 14th, several FCA students made a special visit to St. Elizabeth's Place to share Valentine's Day gifts with the residents. Everyone was very excited to see the students and really appreciated what they did. It made Valentine's Day special for everyone.

Varsity Basketball Ends Regular Season with Senior Night

Pictures by Matt Lee

The girls' and boys' varsity basketball teams ended their regular season Monday night, Feb. 17th, in a game against the Dillon Wildcats. The Lady Warriors played tough but the Lady Wildcats took possession in the 3rd quarter and never let up. The final score was 38-71. The boys team fared much better taking the win with a score of 69-59.

Between the two games, the seniors from the basketball teams and the senior cheerleaders were recognized. Those seniors included: Shakyra Rutledge, LeAnn Thompson, Madison Bass, Mikayla Knowlin, Adonis Williams, Deandre Richardson, Jalen Simmons, Stephon Funnye, Jaz Greene, Breanna Auton, Victoria Boatman, Jocelyn Frasier, Sarah Hutto, Kemmie Smith, Jamie McNair, Khalil Nicholson, Mariah Reed, and Arden Lee.

PLAYOFFS...

On Tuesday, Feb. 18th, the boys' team had to play Dillon to determine the 3rd place spot in the playoffs. Waccamaw lost that game moving them to 4th place.

The first round of playoffs started last night, Feb. 20th, with the girls' team playing Kingstree (3rd in the state with a 23-3 record) and the boys' team playing Lake Marion (2nd in the state with a 23-1 record). It was a short playoff ride for Waccamaw as the girls and boys were defeated by their opponents ending their basketball season. Thanks to all the players and coaches for your determination and effort this season. Go Warriors!

Waccamaw Sailing Club Ends Regatta Season

Article and photos courtesy of Mrs. Ashley DesMarteau

The Waccamaw Sailing Club completed their first SAISA Regatta season last weekend at the Carolina Yacht Club in Charleston, SC. Skipper Griffin DesMarteau with crew Matt Staub got their personal best this season placing 4th in a hard-fought race against 13 teams from North Carolina, Georgia and Charleston, SC. Staub has crewed in three previous regattas, earned a spot as Skipper, did a great job, and continued to improve with each race. Matthew O'Tuel crewed for both Staub and Sydney Register. Morning delays followed by light afternoon winds made for some challenging conditions early on, but seas and winds both piped up and offered some exciting challenges.

New WSC sailing coach, Emily Livingston, was on board to provide great suggestions to the team as the conditions continued to change. Livingston was on staff at Camp Seafarer in North Carolina and has extensive sailing and racing experiences of her own to share. She and her husband Clay live in Pawleys Island with their daughters.

The Waccamaw Sailing Club members will also be helping to mentor the newest sailing team at the Georgetown School of Arts & Sciences. A few of the experienced sailors will provide some training to the newest team. Both schools volunteered their time earlier helping with dock building at Hazzard Marine earlier this month.

The Waccamaw Sailing Club will start their spring practices in early March on Tuesday and Thursdays at Hazzard Marine. Jan O'Tuel is the team manager and can be reached through the Waccamaw Sailing Club FB page.

Wrestlers Compete in Lower State Individual Tournament

With a third place finish in the Region VIII-AA tournament, the wrestling team competed in the Lower State AA Class wrestling tournament at Battery Creek High School Feb. 5-6th. Waccamaw's team ended its season with a 45-29 loss to Lower State champion Battery Creek. Winning for the Warriors were Gabe Pope (113 wt. class), Omar Lopez (170), and Parker Williams (152) each scoring by pin; Arman Singh (126) scoring 5 points with a technical decision; Shea Burke (145) and Tyler Davis (285) both scoring by decision.

The Lower State Individual Tournament will be held at Edisto High School this weekend (Feb. 21-22) in Orangeburg. The top four in each weight class will move on to the state finals. Good luck, wrestlers!

Hawg Hunters Team Practice Tournament

Last Saturday, Feb. 15th, after our winter storm, eight WHS Hawg Hunters braved the elements in a team practice tournament held at Samworth Game Management Area in Plantersville, SC. Conner Summer, Kane Travis, Blair Avant, Cole Miller, Collin Newton, Chase Daniels, Dequan Mazyck, and Daniel Rourk loaded in boats of two and went searching for the biggest bass. It was a slow day with only one group catching a bass. Congratulations to Mazyck and Rourk who brought in the biggest bass weighing a pound and a half. Collin Newton caught a 5 lb. mud fish and his dad caught a smaller bass but they could not be counted in the tournament.

The team will compete March 27-29th in the DNR State Team Championship at Samworth.

Apply for the

2014 National Youth Science Camp (NYSC)

Location: Charleston, West Virginia

Dates: Friday, June 27, 2014 - Sunday, July 20, 2014

High school seniors are being sought to attend the 2014 National Youth Science Camp (NYSC). The awardees will receive a full scholarship to exchange ideas with scientists and other professionals from the academic and corporate worlds. The nearly month-long experience includes lectures and hands-on research projects presented by scientists from across the nation; overnight camping trips into the Monongahela National Forest; and a visit to Washington D.C. The selected delegates should demonstrate academic achievement in science as well as showing potential for thoughtful scientific leadership.

The NYSC experience is offered at no cost to participants so that financial status is not a factor in applying for or attending the camp. Contributions to the National Youth Science Foundation® support delegate participation in this "once in a lifetime" experience. Educational and recreational programming, as well as meals, lodging, and round-trip air fare on scheduled airlines are provided free of charge.

The NYSC is held near Bartow in the eastern mountains of West Virginia, within the Monongahela National Forest.

Application forms can be accessed from the NYSC website at the following link: <http://apply.nysc.org>.

Applications must be submitted online no later than Saturday, March 1, 2014.

Should you have questions or need additional information, please contact Dr. Boyd at dsboyd@ed.sc.gov or 803-734-8537.

South Carolina Business Week 2014 Program

When: July 13-18

Location: Presbyterian College

Open to: Current sophomores, juniors, and seniors who are student leaders and performing academically in the top one-third of their class.

Over 30 prominent business executives are invited to teach current business topics related to the challenges facing modern business and the free market system. Students gain valuable information about career options and future opportunities from the relationships and contacts formed with these executives. Other program benefits include the opportunity to compete for a $2,000 Chelse Ward Elliott scholarship, $2,000 Rawl Family scholarship, $3,000 Ron McNair Leadership scholarship and $5,000 S. Hunter Howard, Jr. scholarship. Businesses throughout the state will provide sponsorships to the 200 students accepted to attend. The only cost to the student will be a $50.00 registration fee. The application deadline is April 11th, 2014.

To be accepted into the program, students must?

- Rank academically in the top one-third of your class.
- Have completed their sophomore, junior, or senior year by the end of Spring 2014.
- Possess demonstrated leadership skills through school and community activities
- Complete the enclosed application form in its entirety with the signature of school principal or guidance counselor, and return to the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce.
- Essay: Write a brief (minimum 250 words, maximum 500 words) explanation about what you hope to gain by attending Business Week and how you think this experience will provide a background for your future in the working world. Please type, if possible, or use a pen and write legibly. Please staple to application. Students, including returning students, must submit an original essay. Essays from previous years will not be accepted.
- Students are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis with class rank and application content taken into consideration.
- Upon receipt of applications, students will receive a notification of acceptance within three weeks. Do not include the $50 registration fee with the acceptance. Students will be mailed an acceptance letter detailing when to send the $50 registration fee.
