Waccamaw Helps Those in Need

By Hannah Wolf, Picture courtesy of Mrs. Noyes

Last week, the National Honor Society (NHS) held their annual canned food drive fundraiser for Baskervill and Friendship Place. Students were asked to bring canned foods in to their fourth period, helping those organizations continue to feed the community. A total of 2,541 cans were brought in for the food drive, 1,147 of those being from Ms. Stephenson's fourth period class who won the canned food competition. NHS members who signed up came after school every day to count, bag, and box cans brought in each day. Other top collectors were Dr. Herndon's class with 599 cans, Ms. Ehnat's class with 480 cans, and Mr. Kibler's class with 143 cans. Thank you, teachers and students, for participating in yet another successful canned food drive!

Chorus Students Excel in Solo and Ensemble Event

By Ms. Warr

Congratulations to the five chorus students who participated in the Solo and Ensemble event this past Saturday at the College of Charleston: Sydney Windham, Chris Holmes, Ashlyn DeLoach, Mac Atkinson, and Margaret Stacy. Four of our students received a superior rating and one received an excellent rating; these students have now earned the opportunity to perform in the advanced level next year. We are tremendously proud of their accomplishments and for their top score representation of Waccamaw High School.

Mole Day 2015

By Jed Parreno

On Monday, February 23rd, Mrs. Noyes' chemistry classes celebrated "Mole Day" which is set aside during the year to commemorate Avogadro's number ( $6.02 \times 10^{23}$ ). The actual date for Mole Day is October 23rd, but the classes celebrated later in the year due to a busy schedule around the actual date. This year's Mole Day theme was "Mole Heroes." Students were able to make t-shirts, food, jokes, and were able to dress as Amedeo Avogadro for extra-credit. "Holy Moley" it was fun!

WHS Sailors Face Challenging Conditions

A very crowded start line!

By Amy Jones

Pictures courtesy of Mike Benton and Ashley DesMarteau

The WHS Sailing Club - Competitive Team competed in the SAISA North Points #4 regatta held in Charleston, SC February 21st and 22nd.

Coach Bob Turner advises Griffin DesMarteau & Ella Grace Bodie.

Seventeen teams competed in 8 races/2 divisions. Winds were described as "light and fluky" providing considerable inconsistency from race to race with a culminating challenge in one race where only two boats completed the course within the designated time period. Consequently, the 15 other teams received DNF (did not finish) penalty scores of 18.

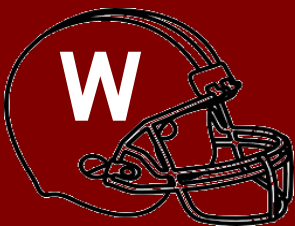

At the end of the regatta, Waccamaw sailors were able to salvage a 12th place overall finish. Griffin DesMarteau (skipper), Sydney Register and Ella Grace Bodie (crew) scored 12th in A division. Noah Benton (skipper) and Noah Giltmier (crew) along with Sydney Register (skipper) and Clayton Register (crew) scored 9th in B division.

Many lessons were learned at this regatta and the team is grateful to be allowed to throw out regatta scores when competing for a SAISA District placement. If weather permits, the team will travel to Raleigh, NC this coming weekend with the goal of restoring their successful placement. Go, Warrior Sailors!

REMINDER: Club Sailing for Spring will begin March 16 on Mondays/Wednesdays after school at Hazzard Marine. Sign up sheets will be posted in the Office & Media Center. Stay tuned for more details!

OLD-TIMERS BASEBALL GAME

By Karl Strittmatter; Pictures courtesy of Teague Mathews

Last Saturday, February 21st, the varsity baseball team participated in the annual Old-Timers game. Starting in 2010, the Waccamaw varsity baseball team hosted this fundraiser and have had such a good time, they have continued the tradition. This year, sixteen old-timers from the class of 1995 to 2014 stepped on the field to battle the “youngsters of Waccamaw”. The varsity team got the upper hand. They took advantage of an early lead and kept a steady pace as they cruised past the old-timers with a 9-4 win. The starting pitcher, junior Christian Hendrickson, threw a great game. Tyler Vick, a 2007 graduate, was the starting pitcher for the old-timers. He also threw a great game considering he hadn’t pitched a game since 2011. Vick played college baseball at Spartanburg Methodist and Charleston Southern. Today he coaches the WHS JV Baseball team. Even though the old-timers lost, everyone had a great time, and enjoyed some good fellowship.

Thanks to all the alumni members who participated: ‘95 Rob Phillips, ‘96 Jeff Gilmore, ‘99 Nick Wilson, ‘02 Austin Williams, Justin Herndon, Jacob Urtz, Andy Kunz, and Marty Wheeler, ‘03 Brock Grasso, ‘05 Travis Armour, ‘07 Tyler Vick and Trey Altman, ‘11 Shawn Connell, ‘14 JC Tolson, Dalton Hendrix, and Ethan Leatherwood.
