Tyler Davis and Shea Burke are Wrestling State Champs!

Just a week before the State Wrestling Championship, wrestlers Arman Singh, Shea Burke, and Tyler Davis won the Lower State championship in their individual weight classes qualifying them for state. Bobby Walters, Alonzo Trent, and Omar Lopez also qualified for the state championships by placing in the top four at Lower State.

This past weekend, the wrestlers traveled to Anderson to compete for the individual state title. It was an outstanding performance from the Warriors as Burke took the championship title in the 145 weight class with a 9-2 decision, Davis took the championship title in the 285 weight class with a 4-1 decision, and Singh took runner-up in the 138 weight class. The wrestling program has only had one other state championship in their eight-year history, John Van Slooten in 2013. Coach Cook and his staff started a youth program several years ago; Cook hopes the excitement from this past weekend will generate interest in others to get involved in wrestling. It's a great program that continues to grow.

As far as this past weekend's outcome, Coach Cook said, "we are excited and they fulfilled what they thought they could do." Congratulations to Shea Burke, Tyler Davis, Arman Singh, and the entire wrestling team and coaching staff on an awesome season!

Waccamaw's Academic Team Wins District Tournament

By Davis Eddy, Pictures by Eddy and Danielle Mallon

Georgetown County School District hosted its annual Academic Bowl at the Beck Administration Building on Thursday, February 26th. Six members of the Waccamaw Academic Team were chosen to compete based on their performance throughout the year. They were: Cole McCosh, Jackson Stacy, Tucker Thaggard, Davis Eddy, Kade Ford, and Rachel Staats coached by Ms. Darcy Graham and Mr. Brad Kibler. Georgetown, Andrews, and Carvers Bay made up the rest of the bracket with teams of their own. Each match consists of three rounds in which the competitors can score points. The first round is made solely up of toss-up questions in which individual players may buzz in and answer.

To help prepare for the Academic Bowl, the Academic Team challenged teachers to an academic duel.

The second round consists of toss-ups which are followed by bonus questions if answered correctly. The bonus questions allow the team to come to a consensus and are worth two points. The final round is a lightning round in which competitors are given a string of quicker, easier toss-ups for two minutes. A right answer results in a point whereas a wrong answer results in a point for the opposing team. The first match pitted Georgetown against Carvers Bay, resulting in a considerable victory for Georgetown. Waccamaw then faced off against Andrews in a match that began rather even, but concluded with a convincing win for the Warriors. Carvers Bay was then eliminated by Andrews due to the double-elimination nature of the tournament. Georgetown fell to Waccamaw in the next match, securing the Warriors a position in the final match. To decide who would face off against Waccamaw for the title, Georgetown and Andrews played a heated match. The Bulldogs prevailed and took the opposing side in the final match against the Warriors. Waccamaw was able to pull off its most decisive victory of the tournament, crushing Georgetown by over three times their point total. The Warriors took home the District trophy for the second year in a row, successfully defending their title as the best academic team in the county. Warriors Jackson Stacy and Kade Ford were awarded for their high point totals within the tournament. Congratulations on a great performance, Academic Team!

All-Star Team members, with correct answers provided are Jonathan Rogers, AHS, 18; Jackson Stacy, WHS, 18; Payden Shaw, GHS, 16; Kade Ford, WHS, 8; Alex Jernigan, GHS, 7; and Emily Port, AHS, 5.

LET'S GO FLY A KITE!

By Sam Windham and Maddie Giarratano, pictures by Jed Parreno

This week, Mrs. Kemp's Geometry classes have been building kites to practice engineering and mathematics, along with types of transformations. Each class was divided into groups of three students. They picked whether they wanted the role of artist, mathematician, or engineer. The job of the artist was to draw the picture that would go on the kite. The job of the mathematician was to find the rotation, reflection, and translation of the picture the artist drew. The job of the engineer was to construct the kite and make sure it had all the properties of a kite as a quadrilateral. Once the constructions are completed, the students will have the opportunity to fly their kites on the football field.

On Thursday night, February 26th, the annual Prom Fashion Show and Dinner fundraiser was held in the WHS cafeteria. Juniors who signed up were dressed in elegant gowns and handsome tuxedos provided by Fancy Frocks with the professional hair stylings of Beautiful Salon and Spa. Before the show, Ashlyn DeLoach, Sydney Windham, and Elody Bensch, accompanied by Alexis Bombich or Ms. Warr, each entertained the audience in song. With a purchased ticket, the audience could enjoy some delicious food catered by Quigley's as they watched the show. Berkeley Lane and Lyric Wigfall were the emcees for the night; announcing the models and giving out door prizes. For selling the most food tickets, Alexis Welch won a free dinner at Bistro 217 and two free prom tickets. Meagan Fitzgerald also won two prom tickets for coming in second in sales. Strutting down the catwalk to a variety of popular music, the participating juniors each took a turn standing on the podium to strike a pose for the crowd. The girls were beautiful in their vibrant gowns, and the boys were very handsome in their tuxedos. They all did a great job! Models were: Hans Stoetzer, Aaron Jordan, Ian Becker, Price Rowland, Ben Hewes, Larshaun Sessions, Jaz Torrence, Jada Torrence, Chantel Bromell, Leaa Whetstone, Hunter King, Maddy Crowe, Ciara Parker, Brianna Brooks, Meagan Fitzgerald, Karlee Poulin, and Alexis Welch.

Mrs. Tester and Mrs. Griffin did a awesome job organizing the event. They would like to thank Mike and Paula Farish, Kim Falvey, and Candy Jackson of Fancy Frocks Prom, Bridal, and Tuxedo, Greenskeeper Florist in Pawleys Island, Bistro 217, Jan's Barbershop, WHS Athletic Department, Pawleys Island Bakery, Massey's Pizza, Eggs Up Grill, WHS WAVE, Quigley's, Beautiful Salon and Spa, Brad and Nancy Carver, and Janet Krapels for helping make the fashion show and dinner another successful fundraising event.

Seth Ellis and Max Senarslan completed the 10-0 no-hitter against Andrews. Seth Ellis threw a 5-pitch inning and Max Senarslan had two strikeouts, including one to end the game. In the second game against Georgetown, Karl Strittmatter started and threw three no-hit innings with five strike-outs. Jake Adkins had a good game, going 3 for 4 with two singles and a double. Varsity Girls' Soccer Wins the Michael Nash Invitational; Boys take 2nd

Waccamaw varsity soccer teams travelled to North Myrtle Beach Sports Complex over the weekend to participate in the annual Michael B. Nash tournament. This tournament marked the beginning of the official 2015 soccer season for the boys and girls of the Waccamaw soccer program. The Lady Warriors began the tournament Thursday evening, facing off against Conway. The victory became evident quickly as Waccamaw crushed Conway by an astounding nine goals to one. Friday night, the boys joined the tournament, taking on North Myrtle Beach in an exciting game. The Warriors kept a clean slate, closing out the game 2-0. While the boys were playing, the girls faced off against Bluffton, tying 1-1. Saturday marked the end of the tournament for the girls as they dispatched Socastee with a convincing 3-0 win and advanced to the championship game. The Lady Warriors were able to defeat Dreher 4-3 in the final game, taking home the first place trophy. Warriors Jessica Freedom and Kylee Leizear were selected for the All-Tournament team due to their high level of skill and effort throughout the weekend. The boys began their second game on Saturday, taking on Airport. The Warriors played incredibly, dominating the majority of the game, resulting in a 4-1 victory. Later that evening, the boys rolled over Georgetown 5-0, advancing them to the finals on Sunday. Rain and low temperatures set the tone for Sunday, which quickly became the toughest game of the tournament for the Warriors as they took on St. James. The Sharks held the Warriors from scoring but Waccamaw out-possessed and out-shot them for the entirety of the game. After regulation time had ended and neither team had scored, the coaches decided to advance directly to a penalty shootout rather than prolong the stalemate in such unfavorable conditions. The shootout went to six attempts after a continued stalemate, but the Sharks were able to close out the game 4-3 as Waccamaw was unable to block the final shot. It was an unfortunate result to a game in which the Warriors were dominating. Zac Benton and Davis Hogan received the All-Tournament team award for the second year in a row. The boys took their second place trophy, confident in their abilities as a team and ready for the season ahead. Congratulations, Warriors, on an excellent performance this year at the Nash!

Varsity Girls' Softball Finish 3rd in a 16 Team Tournament

Information courtesy of Coach Streiffert

Last weekend, the Lady Warriors varsity softball team competed in the Battle of the Bases tournament at Wescott Park in North Charleston. Waccamaw won 3 games out of 4, defeating Timberland (9-2), Wando (12-3), and Bluffton (11-6), before falling to Stratford (2-14) in the semi-final of the championship bracket. Emily Heimberger and Olivia Dunlap combined for 18 hits in 25 at bats at the top of the order. Each hit a homerun and they combined for seven stolen bases. McKenzie Lugin pitched the victories over Timberland and Wando while Hallie Butler picked up the Bluffton win in relief of Lugin.

Senior Emily Heimberger was named to the Battle of the Bases All Tournament team. She was 10 for 12 at the plate, including hits in her last eight official at bats. Emily homered, doubled twice, and stole five bases in the two-day tournament.

Congratulations to the entire softball team on an outstanding performance at the tournament.

The Lady Warriors (3-1) will travel to Georgetown to open the non-region portion of the schedule on March 9th at 6:00pm.
