Junior-Senior Prom 2014

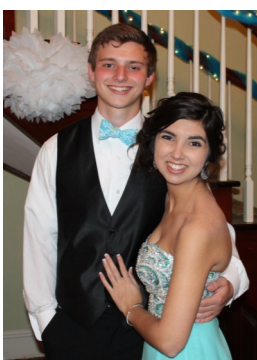

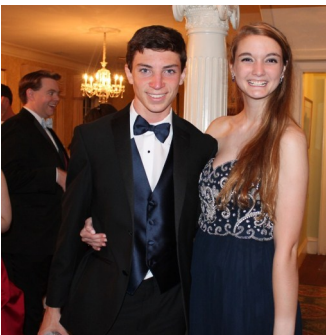

By Hannah Wolf, Pictures by Newsletter Staff and various other students

On Saturday, April 12th, Waccamaw High School's prom was held at Heritage Plantation. A trail of candles led to the plantation house that was decorated to fit this year's theme, "Rustic Romance." Students danced their hearts out to a variety of different music styles DJ'd by Thomas Baldwin. Towards the end of the evening, Curtis Lawing and Mackenzie Arnold were named the 2013-2014 Prom King and Queen.

As a memento, students received their prom shirts designed by the prom committee. Everyone enjoyed prom thanks to the hard work of Mrs. Tester, Mrs. Griffin, and the prom committee. Thank you for making it a magical night!

Congratulations

Special Olympics!

By Emma Karst and Jed Parreno/ Pictures by Karst

On Friday, April 11th, Mrs. Tester gathered her class and headed to Georgetown High School to take part in the county's annual Special Olympics. Accompanying our special needs Warriors were members of the Key Club, Varsity Softball players, several Student Council members, and additional adults and parents.

Students enjoyed the sunny weather participating in events and having a blast accepting medals and ribbons at the awards ceremonies.

The day was a complete success and we are so proud of all of our Warriors, both competitors and volunteers!
