HOMECOMING WEEK

OCTOBER 13-OCTOBER 17

Theme: "The Warrior Games"

Cowboy Diaz and Indian Scumaci

Tonight ends a great week of homecoming for the Warriors. It's been full of wars (pennies to be exact), contests such as the chalk walk, door decorating, dress-up days, and overall fun for the students. On Wednesday afternoon, the princes and princesses of the 2014-2015 homecoming court were announced (see pg. 2).

This afternoon will be the annual homecoming pep rally; at the pep rally, the grade that showed the most school pride throughout the week will be awarded the Spirit stick and the 2014-2015 homecoming king will be crowned. At 4:30pm, the annual homecoming parade will begin at All Saints and end in front of the high school. Get a glimpse of the queen nominees, see the band perform, check out the class floats, and see much, much more; everyone is invited to come out and enjoy the parade. At 7:30pm, Waccamaw will kick-off the homecoming football game as they defend their home turf against the Aynor Blue Jackets. Wear your school colors to show your Warrior pride and cheer the team to victory. At halftime of the game, the 2014-2015 homecoming queen will be crowned.

Reporter Zorn and Old Maid Robinson

Next week, a special edition of the newsletter will be published dedicated to the 2014-2015 homecoming week. The newsletter will be filled with more pictures and information recapping the whole week.

FIELDS OF FAITH

Article by Sarah Ball
Pictures by Jamie Rodriguez

On Wednesday, October 8th, WHS students, FCA members, and their friends and families crowded the bleachers of the Georgetown High school football field along with other students from local schools and their friends and families to participate in the Fields of Faith rally. Fields of Faith is an event where students come together in sports fields or stadiums and preach the word of God to their fellow students and their families. Jeff Martin, an FCA leader from Oklahoma, got the idea for this event after reading the 2nd Chronicles story about a boy king named Josiah who gathered his people to read the word of God. He thought high schools and students could use a religious revival so, in 2004, the first Fields of Faith rally drew 6,000 people all across Oklahoma, Texas, and Kansas to sports fields and stadiums to worship, and 100 people came to know Christ. This year's 2014 Fields of Faith started around 7:30pm with a welcome announcement from Jackson Stacy – the night's emcee. Stacy kept the event rolling by introducing all of the night's events with "energizers" to get the crowd active and excited. Led by members of the Georgetown FCA, these "energizers" consisted of dances that had the crowd moving all around the bleachers. Praise music followed that got the crowd ready for prayer and testimonies. WHS students Blake Marsh and Rachel Thornton gave testimonies along with students from Carvers Bay and Georgetown. These inspiring testimonies really spoke to the students and let them hear about how God was working in people just like them. Following the testimonies, the story of the God-fearing boy Josiah found in 2nd Chronicles, was then read by students to emphasize how young people can make a difference in their community and their world. Then the main speaker, Jonathan Inabinet, stepped up to the microphone. With humor and personal stories, he reminded the crowd about how important a relationship is with God and how easy it is to become a follower of Christ. He also focused on how difficult it can be for a Christian to stand up for and live their beliefs. To conclude his talk, Inabinet called for anyone who wanted to give or re-commit their lives to Christ. Prayer groups were led by members of the Georgetown FCA. Thirty-four people gave or recommitted their lives to God in those groups thanks to prayers and words of encouragement. After the prayer groups dispersed, Jonathan Inabinet said a prayer over the crowd to conclude this year's Fields of Faith. A big thanks to Mrs. Tester, the FCA leadership group, and any students, adults, and teachers who helped make this event possible! A special thanks to the Georgetown County South Coastal FCA and area representative Ryan Wright for sponsoring the event. It was a fantastic rally!

WHS Chorus performs at the Pawleys Island Festival of Music & Arts

By Ms. Warr

The Waccamaw Chorus hit the stage this past Thursday evening, October 9th at The Reserve Golf Club, joining with the world renown Swingle Singers from London. The Swingle Singers have been performing and bringing amazing accapella music for over 50 years. Waccamaw chorus was invited by the Pawleys Island Music and Arts organization to perform with these musicians in the 2014 line up of performances. WHS Chorus members were hard at work for weeks, preparing two musical selections to perform with the group. The first was a delightful, folk style piece named "Piccadilly". The harmonies and lines were beyond the imagination of many of our high schoolers, supremely complex and requiring an above average listening ear and advanced vocal ability. Our Waccamaw Choralaires performed the Piccadilly tune beautifully. The second piece was a vibrant jazz arrangement of Handel's Hallelujah Chorus; the whole chorus took the stage for this piece and were amazing.

Waccamaw Chorus and Choralaires had the privilege of singing three of their own pieces during intermission – "Come To the Music", "What a Wonderful World" and "As If We Never Said Goodbye", featuring Ashlyn DeLoach as a soloist. The event was an incredible experience for the students and the evening ended with an invitation from the Long Bay Symphony to join on a future performance. Great job Waccamaw Chorus!

FANFARE GRAND CHAMPIONS

Article by Hannah Wolf

The Waccamaw Marching Warrior Band traveled to Aynor High School to participate in the annual Aynor Blue Jacket Fanfare. The marching band received: 1st place Overall Music, 3rd place Drumline, 3rd place Color Guard, 1st place Drum Major (Tori Setliff received the third highest score of the entire competition), a Superior rating, 1st place in the 2A division, and Grand Champions of the 1A and 2A divisions. Band captain Sam Insignares said, "Winning gave the band an extreme boost of confidence and people have the energy now that we lost last week at Wando when we didn't perform as well. We need to keep the win from going to our heads so we can do even better this week at the Lower State competition. I'm really proud of everyone and how far we have come."

This Saturday, October 18th, the Marching Warriors will take on Lower State at West Ashley High School. If they place in the top eight bands, they will proceed to the state championship on October 25th. Congratulations and good luck at Lower State!

THE LAW EDUCATION CLASS HOLDS A MOCK TRIAL

Information by Coach Quinn

During the weeks of September 29th and October 6th, Coach Quinn’s Law Education class ran a mock trial series. The cases presented were ones that have recently arisen in the NFL, which ranged from drug abuse to domestic violence. The first trial featured a women’s activist group, represented by Kylee Leizer and Lara von Bylandt Rheydt, prosecuting Roger Goodell (Ethan Chapman) for ignoring and irresponsibly enforcing the NFL’s Character and Conduct Policy. All cases preceding this case pertained directly to the NFL’s conduct policy and, after every case was presented, the activist group and Goodell had a retrial with all the evidence of every case presented. Some of the cases included the attorney team of Alonzo Trent, Chris Keefer, and Nash Worzalla defending Adrian Peterson, and attorneys Caroline Stokes and Mikayla Beasley prosecuting Carolina Panthers defensive end, Greg Hardy, for mistreating his wife. Attorney Joshua Carlton defended Josh Gordon and his suspension this season from the NFL. Student Cimon Bryant said about the series, “These cases taught us, as a class, that no matter who you are in our society, you must respect the laws of our country.” The series was a success for all involved, leaving the students more aware of how the judicial system works.

It’s Time to Let the “Cat out of the Bag.”

Article by LeeAnn Ray
Pictures by Jamie Rodriguez

Ms. Stephenson’s Anatomy classes started studying the anatomy of cats last week. The students started by naming their group and cat; after they picked a name, they took the cats out of the bag and examined the outside of the body. Next, the groups dug deeper and they examined the internal features. Most of the cats had experienced some sort of trauma in their life. For example, one cat had a compound fracture and the bone was poking through the skin. The main job for students was just to get comfortable with dissecting. They also learned new terms and names for the parts of the cat, like whiskers are actually called vibrissa. The Anatomy classes will have a test next week on the dissection.

S.C. Radon Poster Contest

Radon is a colorless, odorless, tasteless, and radioactive gas that forms when uranium breaks down in rocks and soil. Radon gas moves through the ground to the surface and can enter homes and buildings, but there is no way to know the radon level unless it is tested; testing for radon is important because radon is the leading cause of lung cancer in non-smokers. The S.C. Department of Health and Environmental Control is sponsoring its sixth statewide radon poster contest. Help spread an important public health message by entering this contest!

Eligibility:
Poster contest is open to freshmen, 14 and under.

Poster Topics:
One of the following radon topics must be depicted in the artwork:

1. What is radon?
2. Where does radon come from?
3. How does radon get into our homes?
4. Radon can cause lung cancer.
5. Test your home for radon.

Contest and Prizes:
The S.C. poster contest will have three overall winners and two Honorable Mention awards chosen by a judging panel. A ceremony will honor the winners.

Entry Submission:
Deadline for entry is October 31st, 2014.

JV and Varsity Come Up Short Against the Loris Lions

Varsity Football

Article by Karl Strittmatter

Last Friday night, October 10th, the Loris Lions shut out the Waccamaw Warriors. It was a home game with the theme of "Pink Out" as people dressed in pink to show their support of breast cancer. It was a tough loss for the Warriors as they fell, 13-0. The Lions established a 13-0 lead before the half, scoring off a punt return and a fumble recovery both in the second quarter. This lead would stay for the rest of the game as each team held each other scoreless. The Warriors gave it their all on both offense and defense going up against an undefeated team with a solid defense. The Warriors hope to move on from this loss as they play the Aynor Blue Jackets tonight for Homecoming. Come out and support the team and show your Warrior Pride by wearing black and red.

JV Football

Article by Coach King

JV lost a hard fought game against Loris 18-14. Waccamaw's two leaders on offense were: quarterback Jack Floyd who had more than 70 yards passing with one touchdown and one extra point, and RJ Knowlin who rushed for 100 yards and had one reception for a touchdown. The defense was led by Jordan Marshall, who had six tackles and broke up numerous passes.

"We had several costly penalties during the first quarter and those mistakes were combined with two fumbles, which put us behind at halftime," said Coach King. "The team rallied in the 4th quarter, but we ran out of time to complete the upset."

Senior Night!

By Davis Eddy

Last Thursday, October 9th the Varsity hit the road, travelling to Marion for another region match. Coming out of a defeat to Aynor, the girls were able to preserve their region standing by winning 3-0. On Tuesday, October 14th, both the JV and Varsity faced off against strong Dillon teams. The JV won the first game by a narrow margin of 25-23, but lost the second 25-19. In the third game the girls fought hard but fell short, losing 15-13.

After the JV match, it was Senior Night for the Varsity volleyball team. Catherine Kochie, Madeline Hoffman, and Michaela Harleston were all recognized for their contributions to the team. After this short ceremony, the girls took to the court ready to face Dillon. The first game showed promise for the Warriors as they won 25-14. However the second win was much closer at 27-25. Things fell apart for the girls in the third game when Dillon was able to win 25-14. With tensions high, everyone was on the edge of their seats as the Varsity struggled to prevail against a determined Dillon team. The Warriors were able to emerge victorious in a close 26-24 game. Way to go, Warriors!
