Coming Home Week

This week students have been celebrating Coming Home Week, a week devoted to supporting our basketball and wrestling teams and promoting school spirit. Students have been competing in dress up days, and today, grade levels will compete for the Stud Muffin championship title, followed by a pep rally to recognize the players on the basketball and wrestling team, and to crown the King and Queen of Hearts. Tonight, Coming Home week will end with the varsity basketball team playing Aynor. Tipoff is 6:00pm for girls and 7:30pm for boys.

Monday: Decade Day

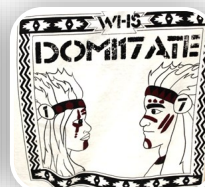

Tuesday: America Day

Wednesday: Superhero Day

Thursday: Class Color Day

Students Tour Pittsburgh Institute of Aeronautics

Article and Pictures provided by Mrs. Tucker

On January 27th, four WHS students traveled with other juniors and seniors from Georgetown County Schools to the Pittsburgh Institute of Aeronautics. They visited the Myrtle Beach campus. They participated in a discussion with the admission counselors and then went on a tour of the facilities. They were able to witness actual students working on plane engines and machines. They were also able to witness an actual classroom session. It was a very informational trip for the students to enjoy. WHS students who attended were: Isaiah Jones, Andrew Hansen, Samirah Murray, and Imani Blye.

Trophies, Trophies, & more Trophies for Speech and Debate

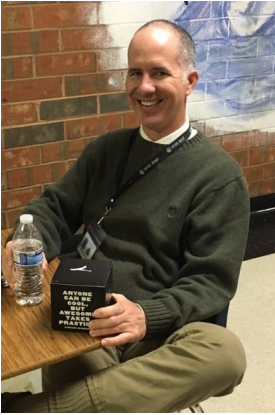

Picture and Information provided by Mrs. Lawson

At the end of January, Waccamaw's Speech and Debate team competed in the Berkeley High School Speech tournament. The team won first place overall and brought home 34 individual event trophies. Zeke Phelan received a bid to the National Individual Events Tournament of Champions; he will need one more bid to qualify for this tournament which is held in Denver this April. Zeke joins teammate Damion Patterson, who has also earned one bid but is seeking his 2nd. Teammates Samuel Averette and Stephen Russell have already qualified for NIETOC. Congratulations, Windtalkers!

Below is a list of individual event trophy winners:

WHS Golf Players Invited to Play in the Dustin Johnson World Junior Golf Championship

Congratulations to Patrick Golden and Jackson Cole who have been invited to play in the First Annual Dustin Johnson World Junior Golf Championship February 12th-15th at the TPC course in Murrells Inlet. Golden said, "It's a good opportunity for the local kids to get to play kids from all over the world. It should be fun."

"It's a good opportunity for the local kids to get to play kids from all over the world. It should be fun."

On Saturday, January 29th, a tournament qualifying round was held at Myrtle Beach National's West Course for boys and girls in the Horry, Georgetown, and Brunswick counties to try and earn a spot in the Dustin Johnson World Junior Golf Championship. Trey Salley and Will Canipe, also on the WHS golf team, played in the qualifier and finished 1st and 2nd, respectively. They will join Golden and Cole and a field of 90 boys and girls between the ages of 13-18 from the Carolinas, Indiana, Michigan, Georgia, California, China, Japan, Canada, Sweden, Philippines, England, and Scotland. Each player will receive $500 in prizes and the winner gets to take home the trophy. Good luck, golfers!

WHS WRESTLERS FINISH 3RD IN REGIONS

Article and picture by E-P Vermont

On Wednesday, January 27th, the Waccamaw wrestling team hosted the Region VII-AA championship meet. Teams competing were: Marion, Aynor, Loris and Waccamaw. Wrestling Aynor, WHS juniors Andrew Hanson, Jack Cook, and senior Preston Janco pinned their opponent and senior Alonzo Trent, ranked 6th in his weight class, won by decision. The Warriors put up a great fight but lost to Aynor 21-55. Loris was Waccamaw's next opponent where sophomore Derek Rollins and Trent both pinned their opponent, and Jeremy Perritt won by decision helping to secure the victory of 60-14 for the Warriors. Overall, Marion finished 1st, Aynor 2nd, Waccamaw 3rd, and Loris 4th.

Wednesday night was also Senior Night for the wrestlers. Head coach, Scott Cook, recognized his two seniors, Alonzo Trent and Preston Janco. The seniors were escorted to center court by their family.

The wrestling team is preparing for the Lower State Individual Qualifying Tournament that will be held February 19th-20th at Marion High School. Good luck, wrestlers!
