Speech & Debate State Champions!

Information and pictures provided by Coach Lawson

This past weekend, March 6th-7th, the Speech & Debate Team traveled to Berkeley High School in Moncks Corner, South Carolina to participate in the 2014-2015 State Tournament. Those in attendance were: Kenzie Confer, Aaron Lampe, Declyn Drejza, Sam Averette, Coya Darcangelo, Jonah Crosby, Clayton Register, Stephen Russell, Amani Huell, and Coach Lawson. The Windtalkers competed against many different schools over a two-day tournament and their hard work paid off. The Windtalkers brought home the trophy as the 2014-2015 2A State Champions!

Individual state finalist were: Amani Huell - state champion in Poetry Interpretation and 3rd in Dramatic Interpretation, Stephen Russell - 5th in Declamation, Clayton Register - 6th in Impromptu Speaking, and Coya Darcangelo - 3rd in Poetry Interpretation.

Congratulations, Windtalkers!

THE TIME HAS ARRIVED FOR OUR 2015 "WACCAMAW'S GOT TALENT"

sponsored by the
WHS Choral Booster Club.

The WHS Talent Show will be held in the auditorium on Thursday, April 16th at 6:30pm.

Talent Show auditions will take place on Thursday, March 26th after school in the auditorium.

Please see Ms. Warr in the Chorus room to get your Talent Show form and to sign up for an audition time. The form must be turned in by Friday, March 13th. This talent show is a time for all WHS students to come out to share their talent and for everyone to enjoy. Don't miss this opportunity to bring it to the Waccamaw stage.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

LOOKING BACK MOVING FOWARD TOGETHER

Ms. Yolanda McCray

Article by Hannah Wolf, Pictures by Jed Parreno

February is well-known as Black History Month; to honor this, Waccamaw held a Black History Month program in the auditorium for the WHS student body. Once all of the students entered the auditorium, Banks Lucas asked for everyone to rise for the Pledge of Allegiance. After everyone was seated, Brianna Brooks and Mia Williams sang “Lift Every Voice” in perfect harmony to start off the show. To welcome the students and introduce the program, Kevin Gasque took the stage and spoke about the purpose of the show and the importance of honoring Black History Month. Alani Scott followed, taking the podium to announce the speaker, Ms. Yolanda McCray, along with all of the different performances. Ms. McCray spoke words of inspiration and how one should continue to be their own person and “move forward” when people try to bring them down. She “made her haters become her motivators” and asked everyone to do the same throughout their lifetime. For the 9th-10th grade assembly, Charlaina Blackstock recited the poem “Phenomenal Woman” by Maya Angelou and in the 11th-12th grade assembly, Connor Graham soulfully recited “I Rise” also by Maya Angelou, creating excitement in the crowds. Meiasa Meyers performed a liturgical dance to “Moving Forward” and the T.A.D.A. team ended the program, showing their talent in step dancing.

Thank you to Ms. Yolanda McCray, who accepted the invitation to speak at the program, to the organizers: Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. Tucker, Ms. Smalls, and Mrs. Stewart, and to the students who participated in the program: Alani Scott, Kevin Gasque, Connor Graham, Charlaina Blackstock, D’avion Funnye, Ciara Parker, Chantel Bromell, Alexis Grove, Alyssa Holmes-Gethers, Kadajah Smalls, Lyric Wigfall, Mia Williams, Jazmyn Torrance, and Banks Lucas. Congratulations on a successful show; everyone did an outstanding job!

Superintendent's Art Show Entries

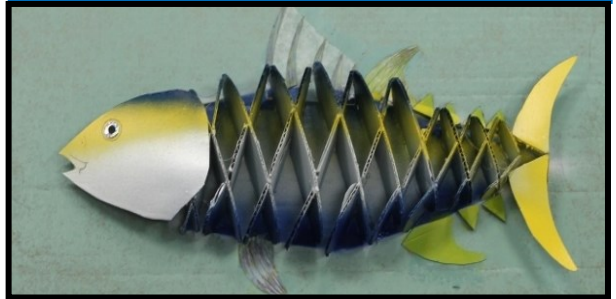

Digital Photos taken by Danielle Mallon; layout by Zach Trzop

On March 30th, 2015, GCS D will hold their annual Superintendent's Art Award show. Schools are allowed to enter 25 pieces of artwork but must choose the category the artwork will be judged in. The options include: Superintendent, Relief, 3-D, Joseph Hanes, and Carolyn Greene. Art teachers, Mr. Bethea and Mr. Peterman, have been working with their students through assignments to prepare them for the art show. They have worked with 2D, 3D, and mixed media. To the right and below are nine art pieces that Mr. Bethea and Mr. Peterson chose to represent Waccamaw High School. These art pieces will be judged in the Superintendent category. A 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winner will be chosen from each category. Prizes include plaques, money, ribbons, certificates, and t-shirts.

Good luck, artists!

The Pawleys Island Festival of Music and Art is accepting entries for its poster design competition to advertise the 25th annual event. They are looking for something spectacular this year as they celebrate their silver anniversary. The poster image should reflect the concept and mission of the Pawleys Island Festival of Music and Art, depicting the Lowcountry, art, music, and wine. All graphic media is acceptable.

The winning design will be selected for its design qualities and marketability. The design will be used in promotional materials, including a poster and t-shirts that will be sold during the festival.

Prize: cover for festival books, $300, two all-access passes to the festival, and ten posters; image will be auctioned at the wine gala.

Poster deadline is March 20th.

*See Mr. Bethea or Mr. Peterman for details.

CHORUS STUDENTS PERFORM AT ALL STATE

Article and picture provided by Ms. Warr

Waccamaw was represented in the 2015 All State at Winthrop University by five of the top vocalists at WHS: Mac Atkinson, Stephanie Cook, Ashlyn DeLoach, Chris Holmes, and Ariana Senn. These students performed with both a mixed or SATB choir and with ladies' or men's choir. All State weekend is a strenuous, high performance experience which requires excellence in vocal skill, music reading, ability to follow music direction, and to blend with others in ensemble. The top vocalists from high schools across the state were chosen in November and invited to perform in the choirs at Winthrop University. Rehearsals began Thursday evening at 8:00pm and restarted Friday morning at 9:00am. Rehearsals ran all day except for meal time and everyone gave their all in this event. Students rehearsed with top level directors, chosen from universities across the country. The finale for the three days of rehearsing and very hard work came with the final showcase on Saturday in the infamous Byrnes Auditorium. To stand on this stage as an All State participant is an honor and part of a long time South Carolina tradition for students. Our students bring great pride to Waccamaw by their awesome accomplishments each year. Congratulations, WHS chorus students!

Each spring, the Congressional Institute sponsors a nationwide high school visual art competition to recognize and encourage artistic talent in the nation and in each congressional district. Since the Artistic Discovery competition began in 1982, more than 650,000 high school students have participated.

Students submit entries to their representative's office and panels of district artists select the winning entries. Winners are recognized both in their district and at an annual awards ceremony in Washington, DC. The winning works are displayed for one year at the U.S. Capitol.

If you are interested in submitting an entry, please see Mr. Bethea for rules, regulations, and submissions.

Boys' Lacrosse Starts Season with a Bang!

Information provided by Coach Frechette

On Saturday, March 7th, Waccamaw defeated visiting White Knoll 12-4. Senior Knox Walters put on an offensive clinic as he faced his former school with a season high of seven goals, three assists, and seven ground balls. Junior Ethan Chapman (one goal and three assists), freshman Hanes Grafe (two goals), senior Walter Reid (one goal), and junior Colin Floyd (one goal) all contributed offensively as well. The Warrior offense was sparked by a quick passing attack and tremendous off ball movement. Defensively, the Warriors were physical and relentless as a unit. Junior Gavin Chilton continued as an anchor while generating 21 saves and facilitating the clears. Junior and Captain Todd Maas led all defenders with three takeaways while guarding White Knoll's leading scorer. This marks the first time in the program's brief history that lacrosse has earned a winning record (3-2).

Waccamaw faced a tough away game at Carolina Forest on Wednesday, March 11th. Carolina Forest has produced impressive offensive numbers so far this season but expected to be well matched by a strong Warrior defense. Results of the game were not available at press time.

JV Soccer Starts Season Strong

Article by Davis Eddy

The boys' and girls' JV soccer teams took on Loris at home on Monday night. The girls crushed the Lions with an 8-0 victory. The boys managed to get up 1-0 by the half thanks to a beautiful assist by Chandler Gerali to Drew Hogan for the goal. The Warriors were able to put up two more goals early in the second half when Pierce DeChamplain scored from a foul kick and Gerali was able to put in one of his own with 23 minutes to go. To close out the game, Wyman Crosby scored a final goal for the boys within the last five minutes. The JV boys pulled off a solid 4-0 win, an excellent first showing within the region.

Girls' Lacrosse Season Opener

Coached by Ms. Miller, the Lady Warriors have been anxiously waiting to play a game. Due to weather and school conflicts, Waccamaw had to cancel their two scrimmage games and the first two games of the season. However, on Friday, March 6th, the waiting was finally over. The Waccamaw Lady Warriors Lacrosse team hosted Carolina Forest in their first game of the season. Hopeful for a victory in their first game, the Warriors warmed up for the seven o'clock start time. It was a challenging game for the Warriors, who lost 3-18. Goals from Waccamaw came from Maddy Middleton (two goals) and Sassy Tolson (one goal). The team took this game as a learning experience and are optimistic for the coming games.

COASTAL INVITATIONAL

Article by Karl Strittmatter

Pictures by Danielle Mallon, LeeAnn Ray, and Karl Strittmatter

Last weekend, March 5th - 8th, the Waccamaw Warriors hosted the annual Coastal Invitational. This year, the teams invited to the tournament included: J.F. Byrnes High School, Johnsonville High School, Chesnee High School, Lewisville High School, Greenwood High School, Conway High School, Palmetto High School, and Waccamaw High School. In the first game of the tournament on Thursday, Waccamaw faced J.F. Byrnes High School. Waccamaw's starting pitcher, Tucker Perry, threw well against a 4A J.F. Byrnes squad that had multiple D1 recruits. The opposing team scored runs early off of timely hits; however, Waccamaw could not do the same as Alex Altman scored their only run. The final score was 7-1, a tough loss for the Warriors. On Friday, Waccamaw played Johnsonville in a close, hard-fought game. The starting pitcher was Forrest Powell who pitched a great game vs. Johnsonville only giving up one run through six innings pitched. Levi Almond also had a great game; he hit in the last run to secure the 2-1 win and closed out the last inning, pitching to end the game. He was the Palmetto MVP; congratulations, Levi! On Saturday, at 5:30pm, the annual Coastal Invitational Homerun Derby took place. Waccamaw's participant was Carter Fox; although he didn't win, he showed off his hitting skills by hitting a long homerun to left field. After the homerun derby Waccamaw faced the Palmetto Mustangs. The starting pitcher, Fox, struggled in the beginning but eventually settled in and began to strike out many Mustang batters. The Mustangs didn't hit the ball very well, but they got their hits when it counted, with men on base resulting in multiple runs. Nonetheless, Fox still threw a good game with multiple strikeouts. Waccamaw hit the ball considerably well and Perry had a clutch hit in the gap that scored two runs and put Waccamaw back into the game. The score was 6-3, but neither team could score any more runs and the score was left at 6-3 until the end of the game. In Waccamaw's last game of the tournament, Waccamaw played Chesnee for the 5th place spot in the tournament. Both teams were scoreless after the second inning until Waccamaw started to pour in runs. Almond was the starting pitcher and threw a very good game, having multiple strikeouts and giving up zero runs. Waccamaw overpowered them 7-0 after several players were pegged by pitches that led to people on base, which gave the Warriors an opportunity to put runs on the board. Waccamaw took advantage of these runners; Connor Eckard had a great hit with the bases loaded that scored two runs and put the game away. The game ended with a final score of 7-0.
