Warrior Pride, We Just Can't Hide

Article by Lora Gahagan Eddy, Pictures by E-P Vermont & Zach Trzop

Friday, September 11th, was a day full of school spirit at Waccamaw. To start out the day, the senior class met in the student parking lot at 7:15 in the morning for coffee and donuts, provided by Dunkin Donuts, and fruit and juice provided by parents. The students came together and bonded as a class as they enjoyed breakfast before their first pep rally as seniors! The classes were on pep rally schedule, so each were shortened, making students eager to enjoy the festivities that awaited that afternoon. The seniors were provided with lunch in the cafeteria in order to encourage the students to stay until the end of the day. During the time before the pep rally, the class gathered in the gym lobby to paint banners for the gym, and organize their run-in. Seniors dressed in red, white, and blue, to show support for their country as we remembered the events of 9/11. While the seniors were lining up, the marching band led music as the underclassmen took their places in the gym. Every class showed up and competed for the most spirited class. The cheerleaders led each class in the competition for the spirit stick, and although the juniors were close in volume, the seniors took the win. Way to go seniors! Along with this, each fall sport was announced and the teams met in the middle of the gym to be recognized. To end the pep rally, the seniors participated in senior circle as the choralaies led the Alma Mater. Thanks to all the students and faculty that participated in the first pep rally of the year!

HUNTER CLINE TIES EAGLE SCOUT PROJECT TO WACCAMAW

Article by Rachel Bailey, Pictures courtesy of Hunter Cline

Hunter Cline is a sophomore at Waccamaw High School. He has been a boy scout in SPL troop 396 for four years now, and he serves as the youth advisor in charge of all meetings. Hunter recently completed his Eagle Scout project. Hunter plays the saxophone in the school's Marching Band, which is where he found the inspiration for his project. He stated, "During long practices we would have to sit on the ground, so I wanted to donate something that could benefit our band." The project consisted of two picnic tables and a water cooler, which cost a total of $1,077.88, and was approved by Coach Davis. There is one red and one black table, with custom engravings on top donated by Shutter Shop, the business of a family friend. I'm sure the new amenities will be greatly appreciated and used! Thank you Hunter!!

Bulldogs Bite the Warriors

Pictures by Karina Kostova

Last Friday, September 11, the varsity football team hosted the Georgetown County rivals - the Georgetown Bulldogs. The Bulldogs dominated the first quarter putting 21 points on the scoreboard. Coach Davis said, "Georgetown hit us with some really big plays early and caught us off guard." The Warriors settled into the game second quarter picking up a touchdown by Kelton Grant and keeping the Bulldogs from scoring. The third quarter was evenly matched with each team picking up a touchdown. For Waccamaw, running back Kevin Gasque found the end zone. Leading 28-12, the Georgetown Bulldogs sealed the win with another touchdown in the fourth quarter. The final score was Georgetown—35, Waccamaw—12. When Kevin Gasque was asked how he felt the season was going, he said, "Although it's a rough start, I feel like we're growing as a team and as the season goes on, we'll be better than what we are now."

Varsity's next game is Friday, September 18th at Green Sea-Floyds. Go Warriors!
