Homecoming 2015

rolls into Monday

By Berkley Lane, pictures provided by Newsletter staff

This week has been full of fun, spirit, and class competitions! Homecoming week, "Warriors Around the World", kicked off a sleepy Monday morning with Pajama Bottom Day, followed by the Hallway Decorations contest after school. Classes decorated designated doors on sections of the hallways, incorporating the country they chose and school pride. Tuesday was Twin Day, and many enjoyed dressing up as their classmates. Wednesday was America Day and the two Powder Puff games! Thursday was Class Color Day with the Chalk Walk competition after school. Today was supposed to be the last day of homecoming week; however, due to expected heavy rain, all events scheduled for today have been moved to Monday, including the pep rally. The students will be counted for Warrior Pride Day today but also on Monday, so wear your red and black. On Monday at 4:30pm, the traditional homecoming parade will begin, and at 6:30pm the game against Mullins will start. The announcement of Homecoming Queen will be made during halftime of the game. GO WARRIORS!

WHS Students Attend 2015 Teen Expo

Article and pictures courtesy of Mrs. Tucker

On Saturday, Sept. 26th, Teens Against Drugs and Alcohol (T.A.D.A.) and the Delta GEMS attended the 2015 Teen Expo held at Horry-Georgetown Technical College. The students and adults received a wealth of knowledge. They were able to participate with discussion panels and hear from motivational speakers. They were entertained by dance groups, singers, and spoken word artists. The students were also able to obtain information from the college and business reps at the fair at the end of the event. Everyone had a great time and is looking forward to attending the expo next year.

English Classes Tour Brookgreen

Information and pictures provided by Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. Chadwell

Last Tuesday, Mrs. Chadwell's and Mrs. Griffin's English II Honors students attended a field trip to Brookgreen Gardens. Students participated in two different tours of the grounds: Where Art and Nature Meet and Fauns and Fountains. The field trip corresponded with a unit on Greek Mythology in relation to the course's summer reading assignment of "Antigone". Students learned about the story of Narcissus and Echo as well as the correlations between Greek and Roman names.

Teacher Cadet Field Trip

By Rachel Bailey

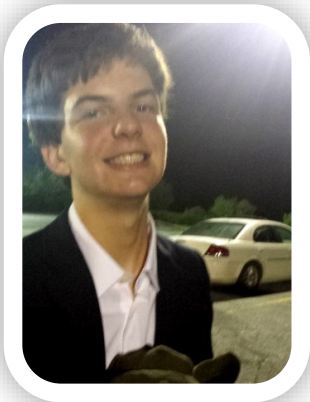

Last Thursday, Mrs. Humowitz's 4th period Teacher Cadet class traveled to Coastal Carolina University to attend a mandatory class seminar. First, the students received their cadet t-shirts and posed for a picture with CCU's mascot. Then, they gathered in the University's new movie theater with the rest of the Horry/Georgetown County teacher cadet students to meet and discuss the importance of teaching with the SC Teacher of the Year, Jennifer Ainsworth. Cadets were then split into two groups based on the numbers on their nametags. One group began participating in the "Build the Perfect Teacher" activity, while the other group enjoyed lunch in the CCU dining hall. During the activity, students built a model with provided craft supplies that they believed exemplified the qualities of a great teacher, and then presented them to the rest of the groups. Lunch breaks were also a time for the students to get their CCU IDs made. Overall, the cadet's trip to Coastal Carolina University was a success!! The students are now even more excited and motivated to start teaching next semester!

A Great Weekend for the Windtalkers

Article by E-P Vermont, pictures provided by Mrs. Lawson

The Windtalkers traveled to Riverside High School this past weekend to compete in their first major speech competition of the year. There were 26 schools present from South Carolina, North Carolina, and Georgia. Mrs. Lawson said, "With only six varsity students out of 23 total team members, this not only makes for a very young team, but it makes for the largest speech team Waccamaw High School has ever had." The Windtalkers overall came in 3rd at this competition. Congratulations! Below are the individual results.

- Novice Drama: Olivia Britt-1st place
- Novice Humor: Lizzie Moore-2nd place, Damian Patterson 1st place
- Varsity Drama: Coya Darcangelo-5th place
- Varsity Humor: Sam Averette-4th place, Stephen Russell-2nd place
- Informative Speaking: Sam Averette-1st place
- Children's Literature: Zeke Phelan-5th place, Declyn Dejza-2nd place
- Program Oral Interpretation: Coya Darcangelo-2nd place
- Declamation: Brianna Carlson-6th place, Jacob Alvarez-4th place, Stephen Russell-2nd place
- Expository Speaking: Jake Homan-4th place
- Original Oration: Declyn Drejza-5th place

A special congratulations to sophomore Stephen Russell (pictured above), who earned his first bid to the National Individual Events Tournaments of Champions (NIETOC). In order to qualify, students need to place in the top percentage twice at specially designated tournaments throughout the country. Way to go, Stephen!

Girls Tennis Team Trip

Article and picture by Karina Kostova

From September 24th to September 28th, the Girls Tennis team traveled to Asheville, North Carolina for their annual trip. Once they arrived, the team played against Asheville High School and were introduced to many of the other players. They stayed in cabins in the mountains and traveled to different locations everyday. On Friday, the team went to Biltmore where they were guided inside the Estate and learned about the Vanderbilt's. The next day, they went to Dollywood, a family amusement park, where the girls entertained themselves by riding rollercoasters. On Sunday, the girls white water rafted in the French Broad River and zip lined. On the last day of their trip, the team relaxed in the cabins and went shopping. The tennis team had a great time and enjoyed their trip.
