Last Sunday, October 30th, the Warrior band held their 3rd annual Zombie Run. In the Zombie Run, each runner started with four "lives" which are ribbons that are hung around their body. Each runner goes through the nature trail and around the school. Marching Band members went to the Beautiful Salon to get "zombified", then were placed throughout the nature trail and attempted to get the runners lives. The top three runners to get through with at least one life left won a prize and the top three runners infected with no lives left also won a prize. The top three alive: first place was Patrick Landford, second place was Rion Keesee, and third was Sean Kelley. The top three infected: first place was James Landford, second was Jackson Junkins, and third place was Donna Anderson. The band would like to thank all the runners for coming out to participate and to Beautiful Salon for helping transform our marching band members into zombies.

Bishops England Erases Waccamaw's Hope for a Lower State Title

The Lady Warriors volleyball team continued their trek to the Lower State title Monday, October 31st, beating Brookland-Cayce in the 2nd round of the Class 3A Lower State playoffs. In five sets, Waccamaw won the 1st and 3rd game and won the 15-point tiebreaker to advance in the playoffs. Sarah Krask had three aces and eight kills, Savanna Morris had 12 kills, and Grace Mann had nine kills. Awesome job, ladies.

On Wednesday, November 2nd, the volleyball team battled Bishop England in the 3rd round of playoffs. Bishop England has won the state title every year since 2000. It was a tough match, but ultimately, not in favor of Waccamaw. Waccamaw lost all three sets ending their run for the Lower State title. Be proud, Lady Warriors!

Waccamaw High seniors Sarah Krask and Reagan Bass have been chosen to play in the North-South All-Star volleyball game. The game will be played on November 19th at Erskine College.

Reagan Bass has also been named to the All-State Volleyball Team.
