Two WHS Students Reveal their Eagle Scout Project to the Community

Article by E-P Vermont

December 7th, 2016, was the 75th anniversary of the bombing of Pearl Harbor. Jonah Crosby, a senior and a Boy Scout in Troop 300, dedicated a flag pole in honor of Lt. Commander Harold Kaminski for his years serviced in the U.S. Navy and who was at Pearl Harbor at the time of the attack. The pole was placed in front of the Kaminski House and Crosby raised the flag to half mass for Pearl Harbor Day. Crosby grew up in George-town and wanted to select an eagle scout project that would be meaningful and useful to the community but also show how much Georgetown means to him. This project will propel Crosby to the rank of Eagle Scout in the Boy Scouts. The flag and pole were donated to his project by the Andrews chapter of WoodmenLife.

Sophomore Bo Averette contributed to All 4 Paws, an animal shelter in Pawleys, for his Eagle Scout project for Troop 360. Ever since he was three years old, his dream was to be a veterinarian. "I had to do something with animals," said Averette. He built two weather shelters named "Solomon's Shade," dedicated to his dog he adopted from the shelter. He designed the structures with lumber donated by Myrtle Beach Building Supply, raised more than $1,100, and gathered a group of Scouts to help construct the shelters. With the additional money he raised, he was able to buy $475 worth of dog food. Averette volunteers at All 4 Paws by walking the dogs and helping clean the yard. Tom Carter, a board member of All 4 Paws, greatly appreciated Averette's dedication to helping the animals. "It was a lot of hard work. It's almost like a graduation to adulthood. You've got to get others involved, have a vision, and make it happen," said Carter.

Socastee Edges the Warriors

By Brecken Fox

Waccamaw hosted Socastee Tuesday night, January 3rd. The Lady Warriors struggled throughout the game only picking up 18 points to Socastee's 65. Alexandra Jaouiche had 8 points, Anna Franklin had 6, and Aleah Bromell and Samirah Murray each had 2. The boys' game was much closer, as they only lost 53-61. Lach Dancy had a great game, scoring a season high of 6 three-point goals for 25 points. Jawan Bryant had 8 points, Connor Heimberger had 7, Boomer Frank had 6, and Ronald Thompson had 5. The Warriors had a horrendous performance from the free throw line, shooting 5-25. Coach Quinn stated, "You can't have that kind of free throw record and expect to win."

Waccamaw was scheduled to play St. James this past Saturday but the game was canceled due to inclement weather.

The Warriors traveled to Lake City last night but results were not available at press time.

Come out Thursday night and support the girls and boys basketball team as they each play their first region game of the season. The girls will play Loris at 6:00pm and the boys will play Loris at 7:30pm. Go Warriors!
