

2018-2019 ENRICHMENT CATALOG

1. ACTING FOR THE STAGE (Mr. Tony Davis)

Students will work duet and monologue scenes to sharpen their acting skills in comedy and drama.

2. AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE (Mrs. King)

American Sign Language is a natural language that serves as the predominant sign language of Deaf communities in the United States. Learn how to communicate through sign language.

3. ARE YOU READY FOR COLLEGE? (Coach Bishop)

Information on the experience of transitioning from high school to college. A description of some of the changes you will encounter as you enter the college culture.

4. ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIPS (Coach Davis)

So you want to play sports in college? A description of required high school courses as well as an explanation of the available college scholarships for athletes.

5. ART SHOW (Spring Semester/Mrs. Struk)

Synopsis: Only for students currently enrolled in art classes this year. Preferably Art 2, 3, and 4 students. Be a part of a team of art students to plan and assemble an art show here. An enrichment opportunity for students enrolled in art to organize and stage an art show at school from the ground up. They will be responsible for the following:

- Curating art from other students
- Publicizing the event
- Scheduling
- Designs of display
- Creating a menu for reception
- Assembling display

6. BIBLE AS LITERATURE (Mr. Bowling)

A look at the different literary types that are present in the Bible and the influence of these types of literature from a historical perspective.

7. BOB ROSS PAINTING (Mrs. Struk)

Here we'll enjoy the soothing instructions from the man himself, Bob Ross. Try your hand at creating your won Bob Ross style painting and discover, "there are no mistakes, just happy little accidents."

8. BULLET JOURNALS (Mrs. Lawell)

Learn how to use this tool to stay organized and on the right track.

9. CARD MAKING (Mrs. Friedman)

Learn how to create beautiful greeting cards.

10. CATCH ME IF YOU CAN (Mr. Bowling)

Outside games, weather permitting.

11. CHOOSING THE BIG LIFE (Mrs. Lemmons)

Looking at life through the lens of what matters most. What are ways that you can positively impact the lives of others while making changes to be uplifted in your own life?

12. CONSTRUCTION JUNCTION (Mr. Stitzel)

Students will work as teams to construct a variety of structures using Tinker Toys, i.e. tallest structure, strongest structure, etc.

13. CTE COMPETITIONS (Mrs. Friedman)

Learn how to be competitive in your CTE competitions; speech prep, interview prep, scrapbook presentations, etc.

14. DIRECTING FOR THE THEATER (Mr. Tony Davis)

Ever wanted to sit in the director's chair? Student will have the opportunity to cast a short scene and block it for performance.

15. DRAW BETTER, FASTER (Mrs. Struk)

Want to learn how to draw better but you feel like you are not getting anywhere on your own? Try the Cognitive Drawing technique to see actual results from all that drawing practice.

16. EARLY AMERICAN FILM (Mr. Pruitt)

Explore the classic filmography of the 1900s to the 1950s that helped define one the world's largest entertainment industries. Learn about the birth/rise of Hollywood and have a better understanding of the Silent/Golden Age of American Film. Chronicle the journey from silent, black and white movies to sound, to color and discuss themes of these time periods. Analyze the impact of Hollywood on American culture

17. EVERYDAY PE! (Coach Bishop-outside only-weather permitting)

Enjoy additional time in the gym for fun and fitness!

18. FIT FOR YOU! (Coach Neill)

A prescriptive health and wellness class where you decide goals for your personal fitness level. Do you want to increase strength, agility, endurance? Lose weight? Tone up certain areas? Then this is the session for you.

19. GOOGLE DOCS (Mrs. Martin)

Learn how to create works cited pages, create a PowerPoint presentation, set up tables within a document and the proper MLA format. Especially helpful for college bound students.

20. GRADUATE SURVIVAL GUIDE (Mrs. Gregory)

It's a big world out there! This is a "how-to" session on managing money, bills, etc.; all the things you have to do as an adult on your own. Plus, what NOT to do as you learn to manage your money and live on a budget!

21. GRADUATION SONG PREP (Mr. Bratcher/spring only)

Learn and practice the senior graduation song.

22. GRAPHIC NOVELS AND VISUAL STORYTELLING (Mrs. Struk)

Learn about and study a selection of graphic novels. Write and draw your own short illustrated stories. Selecting and study prominent award winning graphic novels like "March" by Congressman James Lewis, which tells the story of the civil rights movement or "Persepolis" by Marjane Satrapi, which tells the story of a young girl growing up during the Islamic Revolution in Iran. We will also make use of the abundant free online graphic novels like the comical story of Lackadaisy about 1920's cats running a speakeasy. Students will analyze and evaluate graphic novels, participate in creative writing, and learn about visual story telling. By the end of the course the goal will be to have a set of small stories or one long story hand written, handmade, and hand bound by each student.

23. HIP-HOP HISTORY (Mr. Struk/Spring only)

Review this type of music and how it influenced music listeners.

24. HISTORY OF HEAVY METAL (Mr. Pruitt)

From "Thrash" to "Death," catch a glimpse into the fierce background of Heavy Metal. Follow the journey of Rock and Roll and its evolution into the metal genre. Study the time periods of metal and the idiosyncrasies of each period as well as distinguish the differences between each sub-genre. Develop an understanding of the culture and stylistic differences as you learn to appreciate the influence of heavy metal on history

25. HOW NOW BROWN COW? (FFA Judging/Mr. Tocchio)

Prior approval from Mr. Tocchio required to participate in this session. (Spring only)

26. HUNTER SAFETY (Mr. Tocchio)

The basic Hunter Education Course provides firearms safety training and introduces students to their responsibilities in the fields of hunter ethics and wildlife management. The main objective of the Hunter Education Program is to reduce the potential for hunting accidents and ultimately reduce the number of hunting injuries. The course is taught according to standards established by the International Hunter Education Association. By meeting these standards the Tennessee Hunter Education program is recognized by all states, Canada, and Mexico.

27. INTRODUCTION TO CALLIGRAPHY (Mrs. Struk)

Calligraphy is the art of decorative handwriting and lettering. In this course students will have hands on experiences with the basics of good lettering. They'll experiment with different lettering styles, pen types, and inks to create beautiful writing styles.

28. INTRODUCTION TO DIGITAL DRAWING (Mrs. Struk)

Students will need to BYOD (bring your own device). You will need a laptop or drawing tablet to participate in this course. Learn some basics of drawing digitally and get practice with simple tutorials. Access free and paid online drawing programs.

29. KEYBOARDING (Mrs. Gregory/Mrs. Martin)

ALL freshmen will learn basic keyboarding skills in order to better prepare for future online classes. Freshmen will be assigned to the appropriate lab each session. For interested students, advanced keyboarding will be an option in the spring semester.

30. LAWN GAMES AND ACTIVITIES (Coach Neill/Spring semester)

Come try your hand at corn hole, croquet, badminton, etc. and discover different things to do for your next picnic or tailgating party!

31. LITERATURE BY REGION (Mr. Brown)

A study of the dialect and culture of specific regions of the United States through the study and review of literature.

32. LOOK IT UP! (Mr. Brown)

Research-based extended projects.

33. MEDITATION, YOGA AND STRESS RELIEF (Mrs. King)

Learn how to take some time to regroup and refocus during busy times in your life.

34. MONEY MATTERS (Mrs. Gregory)

Learn how to shop and save; use your money wisely!

35. MUSIC FOR THE SOUL! (Mr. Bratcher)

An opportunity to explore music through singing and instruments.

36. OLYMPIC LIFTING (Mr. Stitzel)

Strength training and conditioning that includes techniques for Olympic power lifting.

37. ONLINE/CREDIT RECOVERY (Mrs. Rhonda Leverette)

This is for students who are currently enrolled in online and/or credit recovery classes.

38. PARLEZ VOUS FRANCAIS? (Coach Neill)

This is your chance to learn commonly used phrases in a variety of different languages: French, German, Italian, etc.

39. PORTFOLIO 101 (Mrs. Struk)

Thinking of entering a creative industry after high school? We'll talk about the ins and outs of creating portfolios and interviews, as well as college and career options for the art students looking to continue to the next step.

40. POTTER MORE (Mr. Pruitt)

Learn everything this is to know about Harry Potter's world!

41. PROM COMMITTEE (Mrs. Ralston/Spring sessions only)

Juniors that need to work on details necessary to insure a successful prom! Prom date will be set later. The venue for the prom is determined by the amount of money the junior class raises via the mum sale.

42. P90X FITNESS (Coach Neill)

This fitness regime will keep you moving as you practice lots of stretching, high kicks, movement of all kinds in this exercise routine.

43. QUIZ BOWL (Mrs. Ralston)

Practice and review of skills necessary for participation in the math and science Quiz Bowl.

44. READ LIKE A COLLEGE KID! (Mr. Brown)

Learn how to annotate and comprehend complex texts.

45. RELAXED CHOIR (Mrs. Beech)

The opportunity to sing fun and casual songs; "old favorites".

46. RESPONSE TO INTERVENTION (RTI) (Mrs. Trott/Mr. Struk)

Students will be assigned to these sessions for additional help in either math or language arts.

47. RESUME WRITING (Ms. Williams)

The opportunity to practice writing personal statements, resumes, and job interview scenarios.

48. SELF-DEFENSE FOR GIRLS (Mr. Tony Davis)

Basic concepts of self-defense; techniques of striking, blocking and evasion. You'll learn how to use ordinary objects from everyday life as weapons to increase your chances of survival. The class will allow you to become more confident and less likely to become a victim.

49. SCIENCE GUY (Mr. Hinson)

Take a world tour of science phenomena by watching science related videos.

50. SCIENCE REVIEW WITH GAMES AND PUZZLES (Mr. Hinson)

Learning and review can be fun with games and puzzles! Navigate online sites that offer practice and review in a game and/or puzzle format. Learn to review with websites such as "Kahoots"!

51. SCRAPBOOKING (Mrs. Friedman)

Learn how to organize and create beautiful scrapbooks in order to preserve your precious memories.

52. SKETCH WALK (Mrs. Struk)

Do you see what I see? When you really look at your surroundings, what do you see and what can you sketch?

53. STOP ASKING WHY!! (Mr. Bowling)

An opportunity to explore many of the scientific observations that make us ask “why”? For instance, why is the sky blue?

54. STRING ART AND ORIGAMI (Mrs. Ralston)

A fun way to practice math skills through art.

55. STUDENT COUNCIL (Mrs. Lemmons/ Mrs. Beech/Ms. Williams)

This session is ONLY for student council representatives.

56. STUDY HALL (Mr. Gregory)

Use your time at school wisely with a concentrated study hall.

57. THEATER ARTS ENRICHMENT (Mr. Tony Davis)

Practice script analysis and performance as well as summary of the basics of drama class.

58. THERE AND BACK AGAIN (Mr. Pruitt)

A study of Tolkien and examples of fantasy literature.

59. TRASH TO TREASURE (Mrs. Friedman)

Repurpose your everyday items to give them a new look! For instance, take a worn out pair of blue jeans and create a purse.

60. SNAPCHAT? TWITTER? (Mrs. Lawell)

Discover digital worlds and their impact on everyday life. Learn “how-to” access social media and use it appropriately.

61. STRINGS AND THINGS (Mr. Bratcher)

Bring your own stringed instrument, (fiddle, guitar or ukulele) and learn how to play your favorite tunes!

62. YOU ARE WORTHY! (Mrs. Trott/spring semester)

Learn how to feel good about life choices and decisions that you make for yourself.

63. VIKING VENTURES (Mrs. Beech)

Walk and talk; keep fit and have good conversation as you meander around our campus.

64. WHERE IN THE WORLD IS WALDO? (Coach Davis)

Explore the world around you as you play this adventure game using Google maps. Also learn about the over 500 geocaching sites around Shelbyville!

