

_____ 's Book Report

Core: _____

Date: _____

The title of my book is _____. The author's name is _____. The story's setting is located in _____. The author's purpose for writing was to _____. The author's tone of the book was _____. One analogy that I can create based on the book is _____ is to _____ as _____ is to _____ because _____ (explain the relating factor) _____.

There were several cause and effect relationships. One effect found in the novel was _____, which was caused by _____. I had to make an inference that _____ because it was not clearly stated. The moral dilemma faced by _____ (character's name) was that _____ (character's name) had to decide whether or not to _____.

The main character was _____ (character's name). The other characters thought that _____ (character's name) was _____. Based on _____ (character's name) actions, I would describe him/her as _____. If _____ (a different character's name) were telling the story, then it would be different because _____. One question that I still have after reading this book is _____.

The theme of the novel was _____. (Explain the theme).

One event that I would change is when _____.
(Explain why you would make that change.)

(Give a brief summary of the novel.)

(Write a brief critique of the novel.)

I _____ (would/would not) recommend this book to a friend because _____.

*No Movie Books

*Your book must have at least 150 pages

*Typed = 10 Bonus Points

*Turned in Early = 10 Bonus Points