FAYETTEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

FHS Basketball Team District Champions!!

Congratulations to our hardworking team!

On February 17th, at Cascade High School, Fayetteville brought home the 8-A District Championship. In the first period things were not looking good for us. The Cascade student section had very poor sportsmanship chanting “air ball” whenever our very own #23, Isaiah Watkins, got possession of the basketball. Isaiah soon silenced the Cascade student section by shooting a deep 3 pointer. Right before the half was finished, #0, Julius Dixon threw down a truly high-light worthy dunk. We played a hard game and ended up beating the Cascade Champions 46 to 26. The awards ceremony occurred soon after with numerous FHS players earning countless awards. Coach Murdock earned the coveted “Coach of the Year” award. Congratulations to all of our basketball players and coaches.

Perry's Positive Thought

I went out to the movies the other day and watched Black Panther. I'm trying my best to get my parents to love the Marvel movies like I do, so I took them to watch it. It was a nice family outing, and all of us enjoyed the movie. After the movie we went by Rafael's and got a pizza while talking about the movie. I would always recommend a movie night with your parents because not only will they pay for the movie, you will have a great time catching up with them.

What is more self-contradictory than "The Death Cure?" How about a group of teenage science experiments fighting for freedom against a sinister organization, which is also trying to find a cure for the very disease that plagues them. "The Death Cure" is based off the book by James Dashner, the same author as The Mortality Doctrine series, in which the main character Thomas embarks on a long journey to not only free the world of a tyrannical government, but find a cure for the lethal plague known as "The Flare." Thomas will have to deal with powerful armies, betrayal, deception, military coups and his own demons through the sun-ruined world that he has come to know.

Pet of the Week:

Breed: British Shorthair & Domestic Short Hair Mix

Age: 6 years

Gender: spayed female

Adoption Fee: $75.00

Weight: 10 lb. 1 oz.

Notes: All of our lives, we have been in the same house, with the same owner. Unfortunately, our owner can't take care of anymore and thought it was in our best interest to surrender us for adoption. This has thrown us for a loop and we are all terrified. As scared as we may be, we are very gentle and allow people to handle us however it is needed. We will even lean into neck scratches. Our new perfect home would realize that we will need a little time to adjust but the wait will be worth it! —Jessica Bates

Fun Facts About St. Patrick's Day

The color green only became associated with the big day after it was linked to the Irish independence movement in the late 18th century.

Although he made his mark by introducing Christianity to Ireland, Saint Patrick was British.

New York City's Saint Patrick's Day Parade is one of the world's largest parades.

Saint Patrick's Day used to be considered a strictly religious holiday.

Saint Patrick died on March 17th.

At the age of 16, Patrick had the misfortune of being kidnapped by Irish raiders who took him away and sold him as a slave.

Legend claims that Saint Patrick ran all the snakes out of Ireland.

The shamrock was originally used to teach trinity (Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit).

Saint Patrick's given name was Maewyn Succat.

St. Patrick tended sheep for 10 years in Ireland before escaping back to England and taking refuge in a monastery.
