

The Rocketeer

Rock Creek
Elementary

6 Benefits of Rereading Books (Over...and Over) for Kids

3 Benefits of Adults Rereading Books to Kids

- Repeating, Reviewing, and Remembering- The more we engage with a story, the more we take away from it. When kids listen to the same story multiple times, they pick up new information, dive deeper into the meaning of the book, and make connections between themselves and the book.
- Developing a Thirst for Books- Letting kids pick books they want to be read aloud is important for helping to develop a thirst for books. Book choice is powerful!
- Bonding as a Family- Rereading any book together can help your family bond. In fact, many of us look forward to those bedtime reading rituals!

3 Benefits of Kids Rereading Books They Enjoy

- Getting to Know a Friend- The more time we spend with someone, the better we get to know that person. Books are the same way. The more time a child spends rereading a section, a favorite quote, or the entire book, the more connected the child feels to the story.
- Rereading Fills the Gap- Sometimes it can be tough for kids to find books they enjoy. So, rereading past favorites keeps kids reading while they find their next book match.
- Building Fluency- Newly independent readers need lots of practice to get past the word-by-word choppy reading into fluent reading. When a child chooses to read a favorite book over and over again, he/she is getting lots of practice to build fluency.

Source: Scholastic.com

College Vocabulary

-APPLICATION-

a written request for admission into a college or university

Did you know...

Water is the only substance on earth that is lighter as a solid than a liquid.

ATTENDANCE

Things to Remember

- Make school attendance a priority
- Being late to school disrupts the class
- Make sure to turn in written notes to your child's school when your child is absent
- Students are only allowed five (5) parent notes per school year
- Students absent unexcused five or more days during the school year are truant and subject to court
- Please avoid medical appointments and extended trips when school is in session

Please continue to donate the following items. Collection bins are near the front office.

- Box Tops for Education
- Used markers
- Beverage tabs for Ronald McDonald House

Important Dates

Jan. 21- No School-
MLK Day

