Fractured Portrait

Student's Name:

Today's Date:	Art Period:	Student's Grade Level: 9th 10th 11th 12th

Teacher Evaluation of your project:	Points	Score
Composition	20
How successful was the student creating a center of interest, balance, space and movement in…
* drawing a continuous line portrait that fills the picture plane?
* fracturing the spaces with a variety of lines that create harmony, movement, balance, rhythm, and unity ?
Concepts	20
How successful was the student in following the teachers instructions in…
* using unnatural hand to create a portrait?
* creating a continuous contour line including face, ears, hair, eyes, eyebrows, nose & mouth?
* using fiber tipped markers to produce an even coat of color without smears, streaks and overlapping lines?
* creating an attractive color scheme?
Craftsmanship	20
How successful was the students use of tools and mediums; technical skills; and consistency when…
* drawing and coloring neat and clean?
* mounting the portrait on black paper evenly and without glue smears?
Catch	20
How successful was the student in catching the viewer's eye through creativity and originality by the…
* position of the portrait in the picture plane?
* art elements of line and color?
* art principles of variety, movement, balance, harmony and unity?
Challenge	20
How much preparation / effort / and perseverance did the student put into this project by…
* their daily work during their class period…
 did they came in early and set up to work / worked consistently at their table until teacher instructed them to clean up?
 or did they talk most of the time / get up out of their seat not project related / sleep / refuse to do their work / clean up before teacher instructed them to?
* their attitude for this art project…
 did they enjoy their work / find extra concepts of the project to explore / push themselves to achieve new skills?
 or did they hate the project / thought it was boring / got it done without pushing themselves to achieve new skills?
Total points for this project are	100	