

Prom Dress Code in Handbook

Inappropriate Attire for Ladies:

1. Gowns that have a split from the hem to above mid-thigh.
2. Neck lines that plunge below breasts or that are too revealing.
3. Backs of dresses that fall below the waistline.
4. Anything that is see-through or too revealing of body parts that should not be visible.
5. Dresses above mid-thigh.
6. The top band of the skirt or pants must be within one half inch (1/2) of the navel (belly button) all the way around the waist. The band of the skirt/pants must be straight and not have cut outs or scallops that go below the one half inch (1/2) requirement from the navel.

If you have a question about your chosen dress you may bring a picture or the dress by Mrs. Fowler's room #220.

Here are examples of what is inappropriate:
