

Summer Reading Projects for Rising Second Grade

~Read at least 3 books from the recommended Summer Reading List.

~Create 3 projects from the choices below (one project for each of the 3 books read):

Choice 1: Make a bookmark. On the front of your bookmark draw a picture about your book. Include the book title and author. On the back of your bookmark, write about the beginning, middle, and end of the book. Remember to use complete sentences with capital letters and end marks.

Choice 2: Create a poster about your book. Draw pictures that retells the book. Include at least 3 important events from the beginning, middle, and end. Your poster can be done on 8.5x11 paper. Write a caption for the beginning, middle, and end events. Remember to use complete sentences with capital letters and end marks.

Choice 3: Create a shoe box diorama about your book. Show a favorite event from the book or an important scene. On the back of your diorama, write about the beginning, middle, and end of the book. Remember to use complete sentences with capital letters and end marks.

~Students can choose any combination of the choice projects. All projects are due on the first week of school.

Please have projects finished by the opening of school so students can present their Summer Reading!
Happy Reading! 😊
