

LET 2 Board Study Guide

1. Q: Protection against arbitrary deprivation of life, liberty, or property is known as what?

A: due process of law

2. Q: On March 5, 1770, a mob of colonists harassed British soldiers guarding the tax collector's office in Boston; soldiers killed five Bostonians. What was this incident called?

A: Boston Massacre

3. Q: What did the lords and vassals use during the Feudal period that allowed the government system to work?

A: contracts or agreements

4. Q: Define the citizenship skill "balance."

A: A skill that involves understanding there is more than one side to every issue and having the ability to come to agreement and resolve differences by either compromising or harmonizing solutions.

5. Q: Name the intellectual movement of the late seventeenth and eighteenth centuries that celebrated human reason and sought to realize its potential in all areas of human endeavor.

A: Age of Enlightenment

6. Q: According to Locke and the Founders who is to judge if the government has failed?

A: The people

7. Q: The dedication of citizens to the common good, even at the cost of their individual interests is called?

A: civic virtue

8. Q: The Great Charter of freedom granted in 1215 by King John of England is known as the_____?

A: Magna Carta