

Hi! I am so glad that you have decided to join chorus this semester! I have a lot of exciting things planned and I can't wait to get going. Attached you will find a calendar of practice dates as well as our fall concert dates. Please review these now, put them on your calendar and plan to be at rehearsal each week. If you have a conflict and cannot be at choir, please let me know ahead of time if at all possible. Attendance is especially imperative this semester, as we usually have winter weather to contend with. Thus, every second of every rehearsal counts. We have lots of work to do! If you have several absences, you may be asked to leave the chorus. The most important dates are our concert dates. Make sure that you have these available!

You will find the rules below. Please review these with your parents. If you cannot abide by these simple rules, you may be asked to leave at the discretion of the director.

If you are committed to chorus, please sign the bottom portion and return it along with $5.00 by Friday, February 1, 2019.

I look forward to an amazing semester! - Mrs. Cummings

CHOIR RULES:
