

Title I School

Spring City Elementary School has a school-wide Title I Program. This means that SCES receives federal funds to be used in providing a quality educational program with special emphasis on the area of reading and math. All students in the school share equally in the services, equipment, and materials provided by Title I.